U. S. LOSS IN CARRIZAL FIGHT 12 DEAD, 17 PRISONERS

Washington Has Only Mexican Version—Action Depends Upon Pershing's Report

MEXICAN OFFICIAL REPORT SAYS TREVINO ORDERED AN ATTACK

War Minister Gives Out Reports of Fight at Carrizal Which Occurred Yesterday.

BOTH COMMANDERS, 12 U. S. SOLDIERS REPORTED KILLED

Account Received at El Paso Says 17 of U. S. Troopers Were Taken Prisoners, and That Mexicans Lost 14 Killed and 30 Wounded.

MEXICO CITY, June 22.—War Minister Obregon has issued an official statement on the fight at Carrizal between American and Carranza troops in which he says the Americans were attacked because they tried to occupy the railroad station. His statement includes reports from Gen. Trevino at Chihuahua, who ordered an attack on the Americans, and who says 17 Americans were captured. Gen. Carranza has ordered a meeting of the Cabinet for this afternoon.

Gen. Obregon's statement follows:

"The Ministry under my charge by the first chief's orders instructed Gen. Jacinto B. Trevino on June 18 that if Gen. Pershing's forces forming the punitive expedition which penetrated our national territory after the Columbus incident, moved southward, eastward or westward from where they were, they should be attacked.

"Early this morning (Wednesday) an American force tried to occupy the station at Carrizal on the Mexican Central Railroad. Gen. Trevino ordered it to be attacked. The fight that resulted is described in official reports rendered to this Ministry by Gen. Trevino as follows:

"June 21, 1916.

"Headquarters, Chihuahua City, to Minister of War and Navy, Gen. Alvaro Obregon:

"Gen. Francisco Gonzales reported to me last night from Ciudad Juarez that American forces were arriving at Santo Domingo. Therefore, I ordered they be attacked today, and I am informed the fight began at 8 o'clock this morning in Carrizal. I have just been informed that the American forces were repulsed.

"Gen. Felix Gomez was seriously wounded. He commanded our forces. We have others killed and wounded.

"Seven Americans were taken prisoners, and just now I received another message reporting the death of Gen. Gomez. I am giving the necessary orders.

"JACINTO B. TREVINO,

"General in Chief."

"Another message quickly followed. This reads as follows:

"Headquarters, Chihuahua City, to Gen. Alvaro Obregon—Urgent: I have just been informed from Ciudad Juarez that when the forces were reorganized it turned out that 17 Americans were captured; not seven as stated in the foregoing report. The Americans' interpreter was captured. He confessed that the American leader was responsible for the conflict. I have ordered that the prisoners be brought here.

"Respectfully,

"JACINTO B. TREVINO,

"General in Chief."

Pershing Without Information as to the Fight at Carrizal

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., June 22.—Brigadier-General Pershing reported to Gen. Funston today that he had not yet received a report on the fight at Carrizal, but added that on information sent to him he had sent out two squadrons of the Eleventh Cavalry, with instructions to get into touch with the troop of the Tenth that was engaged yesterday by the Mexican forces.

Gen. Funston indicated that he had the most positive orders not to do anything calculated to precipitate a fight with troops of the de facto Government. Although unstated in Gen. Pershing's report, officers at department headquarters draw the inference that Capt. Charles T. Vord was in command of Troop H, the troop believed to have been the one engaged at Carrizal.

Varying Accounts of the Fight at Carrizal Are Brought to El Paso

EL PASO, Tex., June 22.—The Americans lost 12 dead, including their commander, and 17 prisoners, while 14 Mexicans were killed and 30 wounded in the fight at Carrizal, according to the official announcement today of the Mexican authorities, which said it had received complete details from Villa Ahumada. The Americans removed their wounded with them.

The name of the American commander was not mentioned. The bodies of the

THE arrow indicates the point near Carrizal where the fight occurred. The dotted line extending from a point below Brownsville through Chihuahua and over the mountain range to Guaymas marks the southern boundary of the territory the American army is said to be ready to seize in the event of actual war, to be held pending the time a big army of occupation can be thrown into the field to secure this country from raids by Mexican bands. The United States forces expect to be able to drive the Mexican forces below the line and hold them there with the troops available immediately. The best Mexican army, that of Gen. Calles, is west of the Sierra Madre Mountains and to prevent him from getting through this range to help Carranzistas east of the mountains, Pulpito pass, the only means of access for him, will be blanketed by the American line on both sides.

ONLY FOUR UNITS MOBILIZED IN 21 EASTERN STATES

Gen. Wood Says Need of Regular Army Reserve Corps Is Clearly Demonstrated.

NEW YORK, June 22.—The movement of additional regiments of the New York National Guard to Camp Whitman at Beekman, N. Y., the mobilization site for State troops, was halted today in compliance with orders from Major-General John F. O'Rourke, the water supply at the camp should be completed before their arrival. Two regiments already are at the camp and 11 others are awaiting orders to go.

Up to this morning Major-General Leonard Wood, commanding the Department of the East, had received official notice that only two troops of cavalry and two regiments of infantry were mobilized in the whole department covering 21 states and extending from the Canadian border to the Gulf of Mexico along the Atlantic coast.

Commenting thereon, Gen. Wood says the need of a regular army reserve corps is clearly demonstrated. He adds that he is informed that the troops in camp are only up to peace strength, which means that each regiment is about 1000 men short of war strength.

He says the same shortage exists in all states in the department, which means that all the regiments will have to recruit and drill men before they can be ready for service.

"I do not wish to imply any criticism of the national guard," said Gen. Wood, "but the facts illustrate our utter lack of readiness to defend ourselves on short notice should there be need. It is no surprise to me, nor should it be to anyone who has any knowledge of military affairs. It is impossible to expect business men to drop their work suddenly and rush off to camp."

Since the development of the Mexican crisis, applications for enlistments in the regular army in this city have increased from 150 a month to 150 a day. Since the national guard mobilization was ordered applications for training at Plattsburg have doubled and now average more than 175 a day.

Directors of the New York Life Insurance Co. announced today that the company will issue policies to national guardsmen up to $10,000. An extra premium of 3 per cent will be required from those who engage in war outside of the United States.

Guardmen now holding insurance policies are not affected by this decision.

MISSOURI TROOPS MAY BE AMONG THE FIRST TO GO

Orders Issued for Expediting Mobilization of Militia of This State and Kansas.

CHICAGO, June 22.—In compliance with the request of Gen. Funston for additional troops on the border, instructions have been issued to the army authorities to expedite the mustering of the Kansas and Missouri National Guard regiments. This is taken to indicate that these organizations will be the first state units to enter the Federal service under the recent call.

By a Staff Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.

NEVADA, Mo., June 22.—Troop arrivals at the mobilization camp of the Missouri National Guard at Nevada, Mo., this morning increased the total number of militiamen here to approximately 3500 men. The arrival of the remaining 1000 men today or tomorrow will complete the mobilization movement and enable Brigadier-General Clark, commanding, to notify the War Department that the Missouri contingent is ready to proceed to the Mexican border.

In response to rumors that the War Department was preparing to move the Missouri, Kansas and California National Guards, Gen. Clark said the troops were ready and could entrain in an emergency one hour after the receipt of orders. All that is needed to complete the Missouri militia's equipment is Government supplies of shoes, mules and boxes. He said no orders to move had been received.

Forty-seven recruits, who joined the First Regiment yesterday in St. Louis, arrived at 4:30 o'clock this morning. The new men reported to Col. A. B. Donnelly and were turned over to regimental officers to receive their military equipment and assignment to companies.

Instructions of recruits in military fundamentals began this morning. Col. Donnelly detailed non-commissioned officers of the First Regiment to drill the new men.

Company commanders of the First Regiment put their men through an hour's drill this morning. All drills will be held on the spacious parade grounds before the brigade headquarters of Gen. Clark. A meeting of the staff officers of the First Regiment was held last night at Col. Donnelly's headquarters.

Regimental administrative affairs and recommendations for promotions of men and noncommissioned officers were discussed. No promotions were acted upon.

Among the arrivals this morning were five companies of the Second Infantry Regiment of Southwest Missouri, commanded by Col. W. A. Raupp. They arrived at Nevada at 2 a. m. the officers

CARRANZA ASKS WHY AMERICANS LEFT THEIR BASE

Arredondo Tells Lansing Reported Occupation of Casas Grandes Is Hostile Act.

CARRANZA SAID TO BE TRYING TO AVOID BREAK

Militia Will Be Sent to Border as Soon as Mobilization and Organization Is Completed—Bill Permitting Immediate Draft for Foreign Service to Be Rushed

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, June 22.—No reason for a change in the Mexican Government in Mexican accounts of the clash at Carrizal between American and Carranza troops. Until a report comes from Gen. Pershing there will be no decision, but President Wilson is said to view the fight as an incident for which subordinate commanders probably were responsible and as unlikely to precipitate general hostilities.

An official communication from the Mexican Foreign Office announcing the fight and capture of 17 Americans and seeking an explanation of the presence of United States soldiers in that part of Mexico, about 60 miles from their base, was presented to Secretary Lansing today by Eliseo Arredondo, the Mexican Ambassador-Designate. It said an interpreter employed as a guide by the American force declared that the American commander was responsible for the encounter.

Communication From Foreign Minister Aguilar.

The communication telegraphed by Gen. Aguilar, Carranza's Foreign Minister, follows:

"Please bring to the attention of the Department of State that an engagement occurred today (twenty-first) at Carrizal, near Villa Ahumada, Chihuahua, between American forces, numbering about 200 men, with a force of our Government, during which engagement Gen. Felix Gomez and several of our troops were killed. There were several casualties among American troops, 17 taken prisoners.

"According to the statement made by the interpreter, who was acting as guide for the American forces the commander of the latter is responsible for the encounter.

"Please make proper representations to the department and say to the Secretary of State that his Government finds it difficult to understand why the American troops that took part in the engagement should have been at Carrizal a point on the line of the Mexican Central Railroad some distance from Ciudad Juarez and rather far from the point which is alleged to be the base of the rest of the American troops which entered Mexico from Columbus. Further details will follow.

From the tone as well as the contents of this communication, officials drew the impression that Carranza desired to disclaim responsibility for the affair. Carranza Would Avoid Break.

From foreign diplomats at Mexico City it was learned that Carranza was exerting every effort to avoid a break with the United States.

Arredondo also sought an explanation of the reported action of Gen. Pershing in occupying the towns of Casas Grandes and Nuevo Casas Grandes, saying such an act would be one of open hostility. Secretary Lansing had no official information on which to discuss the Carrizal affair and, according to Arredondo, also was without knowledge of whether any Mexican towns actually had been occupied.

Official Mexican dispatches were described to Secretary Lansing indicating that the Mexican forces thought the American troops who approached Carrizal intended to take the town. Mr. Arredondo said he called Secretary Lansing's attention to the distance traversed by the American troops from their base and to what he called the lack of prudence of the American commander in approaching the Mexican railway.

When Mr. Lansing saw the newspaper men at 11 o'clock he said there still were no reports on the Carrizal incident from American sources. Asked whether he had ordered American consular officers out of Mexico, he said that all had been arranged for, the consuls saw in Mexico had their instructions and knew what to do. All consular officers were instructed some time ago to use their own discretion about leaving their posts. Later Secretary Baker said no new orders had been sent to Gen. Funston and that the Government would take no step until an account from its own officers showing what happened had been received.

"We have only the information from Mexican sources and from a few Americans who arrived on trains at El Paso," said the Secretary. "We are waiting for further information either from Gen. Pershing or other American sources."

From unofficial sources Baker said he had been informed of the alleged statement by Gen. Obregon assuming responsibility for the orders issued to the Mexican detachment which made the attack. He would not comment.

Reports from Mexican sources telling of the clash but not disclosing casualties were accepted by officials as fairly authentic, although none would believe that the Americans made the first attack.

Militiamen to Be Sent Soon.

National guardsmen to reinforce the border patrol will be sent as soon as their mobilization and organization is completed, but Secretary Baker would not predict when that might be.

Orders to report immediately to the completion of mobilization were sent to all commanding officers of national guard divisions by Gen. Hugh Scott, Chief of Staff, this morning. Gen. Scott said this was preliminary to ordering all units that were ready to take the field immediately to proceed to the border and report to Gen. Funston.

Chairman Hay of the House Military Committee, announced that a resolution prepared by the War Department would be introduced in the Housed tomorrow permitting the immediate drafting of militiamen into the regular service under the provisions of the army reorganization bill which will not be effective until July 1.

Captured U. S. Soldiers Ordered Taken to Chihuahua City.
CHIHUAHUA CITY, June 22.—Orders were issued yesterday by Gen. Jacinto Trevino, commanding the Carranza army of the north, to bring the 17 Americans said to have been captured at Carrizal to Chihuahua City. Reports here place the entire blame for the encounter upon the American commander.

Here U. S. Warships on Way to West Coast of Mexico.
SAN DIEGO, Cal., June 22.—With the departure of the destroyers Hull, Truxtun and Hopkins for Mexican waters, this harbor is without warships and auxiliaries for the first time in more than a year. The destroyers will join Admiral Winslow's fleet now on patrol duty along the lower coast.

The cruiser Milwaukee, flagship of Commander F. N. Freeman, commander of the Pacific torpedo and submarine flotilla, is en route here from San Pedro to take on coal and supplies, and will go to Mazatlan. The warships Maryland and South Dakota, at Bremerton, Wash., will go south next week.

Persistent reports that a Japanese gunboat had been sighted in Mexican waters are denied by Federal officials here.

CARRANZA TROOPS NEAR NAMIQUIPA

FIELD HEADQUARTERS, June 21.
Via radio to Columbus, N. M., June 22.—Carranza troops have been reported close to the southern end of the American lines.

Gen. Pershing is maintaining strong outposts in all directions and taking every precaution to prevent trouble arising. The American troops, after three months of campaigning, are in magnificent form for any sort of work.

COLUMBUS, N. M., June 22.—The de facto troops, which for weeks have been so disposed as to threaten to close in on the American expedition in the event of any movement south of Namiquipa, disappeared last night. It is presumed they are headed for Chihuahua City to effect a junction with Trevino's main body.

This report is taken to mean that the towns of Casas Grandes, Colonia Dublan and El Valle are free of Carranza forces.

Intense activity on the part of officers and men here is noticeable. The aero squad is making every effort to send biplanes south to the expedition today. Mexican Consul Sandoval has been ordered by his Government to report to Juarez. He leaves with his family today.

Sensor Calls Up Resolution He Introduced for Intervention.
WASHINGTON, June 22.—Discussion of the Mexican situation was precipitated in the Senate today by Senator Works of California, who called up his resolution to authorize intervention, had it read and then gave notice that unless the Foreign Relations Committee acted soon he would move to take the matter out of its hands.

The Senator said: "I have been content to let the resolution remain in the hands of the Foreign Relations Committee, but I feel that the time has come when this matter must be taken up by Congress. I think it exceedingly important if we are forced to enter Mexico that we should do it with a clear declaration by Congress."

Trooper in San Ygnacio Attack Dies of Wounds.
LAREDO, Tex., June 22.—Private William Oberlies of Troop M, Fourth Cavalry, who was wounded when Mexican bandits attacked the border patrol at San Ygnacio, 40 miles south of here, on June 16, died today, bringing the number of soldiers killed to four.

RETURN OF AMERICAN FLYERS A MATTER FOR NEGOTIATION Men are Bound to French Army for War; Can't Answer Aero Club Inquiry.

PARIS, June 22.—The American aviators in the service of France are not able to comment on or reply to the inquiry from the Aero Club of America whether they will return to take service in the American army in the event of war with Mexico. They are prevented from replying by the fact that they have enlisted in the French army for the duration of the war and are subject to army discipline.

The only manner in which this subject could be taken up would be by negotiations between the Governments of France and the United States.

$50,000,000 CANANEA MINE SAID TO HAVE BEEN SEIZED

KANSAS CITY, Mo., June 22.—The $50,000,000 property of the Cananea Consolidated Copper Co. at Cananea, Sonora, an American concern, has been taken over by the de facto Government of Mexico, according to a message from the City of Mexico, received today by Delbert J. Hoff, an attorney who represents the company.

VILLA'S WIFE IS DEPORTED
Arrested at El Paso by Mayor's Order and Sent to Juarez.

EL PASO, Tex., June 22.—Mrs. Luz Villa, wife of Francisco Villa, arrested last night and with her sister and her sister's child, about 5 years old, and a German nurse, Maria Hagendor, and deported to Juarez by order of Mayor Luis, who gave no reason for the act.

Mrs. Villa arrived here in the afternoon, ostensibly from New Orleans, but the police believe she came from Los Angeles. She said she intended to go to Chihuahua to look for her husband.

How War May Come Without Action of Congress

WASHINGTON, June 22.—WAR with Mexico may come about without any formal declaration by Congress.

While only Congress has the power to make such a formal declaration, the President has full power to perform acts which might bring about war.

The War Department, under the President, gives orders to Pershing's expedition now in Mexico. These orders, in the present situation, will undoubtedly provide that the column of troops shall simply protect itself, and this self-protection, in case of an attack, might mean a virtual state of war.

At no stage in the course of hostilities would the American troops have to stop to wait the authorization of a declaration of war by Congress.

CLUB PLANS TO ORGANIZE BATTALION OF ENGINEERS
The Engineers' Club will hold a meeting at 8 o'clock tomorrow night at 3511 Olive street for the purpose of organizing a battalion of engineers for service in the Mexican trouble.

The meeting has been called by John A. Laird, chairman of a committee to promote the organization. Many of the engineers have expressed a desire to enlist for active service.

Adjutant-General O'Meara has expressed a desire that a battalion of engineers be organized in the State, but because of the great expense of equipping and maintaining such an organization none has been formed.

Capt. Laird has written to Gen. O'Meara asking what encouragement would be given by the State. At the meeting tomorrow night names of all who will join in case arrangements are made will be taken.

Capt. Laird was Captain in the Third Volunteer Engineers during the Spanish-American War.

Mexican Official Report Says Trevino Ordered an Attack

here today by a Mexican civilian who was in Villa Ahumada yesterday afternoon and who said he assisted in dressing some of the Mexican wounded.

He said that Gen. Felix Gomez, the slain Carranza leader, had been aware of the approach of the Americans for 12 hours and had sent a number of couriers to their warning them to return to their camp.

When they persisted in their advance, he said, a pitfall several hundred feet in length was dug directly in the trail over which the cavalrymen must ride. This was cleverly concealed with brush.

Planted Into Pitfall.

As the Americans unsuspiciously rode through the sand dunes toward the entrenchment, Gen. Gomez lay concealed some hundred yards away in the mesquite. The horses of the American vanguard plunged into the pitfall, upsetting their riders and injuring a number of them. Then, the Mexican asserted, the Carranza forces lying in ambush raked the American ranks with a machine gun. The heavy fire forced the Americans to retreat so as to reorganize their lines and the Mexicans captured 17 soldiers who had been thrown into the pit.

He asserted that it was then that Gen. Gomez went forward under a flag of truce and that before the proposed parley had begun an irresponsible soldier again started the machine gun fire.

A small detachment of cavalrymen charged toward Gen. Gomez and his party who were in the center of a field directly between the two commands, their pistol fire killing the Mexican leader.

"According to his story, both commands withdrew. The Mexican was unable to estimate the Mexican dead, but asserted that the American dead numbered 40, his statement agreeing with other reports.

Gen. Francisco Gonzalez, Carranza commander of the military zone of the border, made the following statement:

"Immediately upon learning of the presence of the American troops in the vicinity of Carrizal, Gen. Felix Gomez dispatched a messenger with a request that the American commander withdraw to his camp. When the American troops remained motionless he sent a second dispatch bearer, who was fired upon by the American troops after he had delivered his message. The Americans immediately moved forward and attacked Gen. Gomez's command."

"All the prisoners admitted that the blame should be put on the American commander for having ordered the attack. The prisoners were sent to Chihuahua City with the customary protection."

Gen. Funston transmitted to the War Department the following report from Gen. Bell at El Paso, on the clash at Carrizal:

"Mexican Consul Garcia telephones me at 5 p. m. as follows:

"There was a clash this morning at Carrizal, near Villa Ahumada, between Carranza and American troops, in which Gen. Gomez and other Mexicans were killed, the number unknown. Number of Americans killed or wounded unknown."

"Gen. Gomez sent a Captain with an order to the American commander to go back, but the American commander said he was going to Villa Ahumada and opened fire on the Mexican Captain, wounding him and killing a private who was with him. Americans attacked Gen. Gomez, but were thrown back and several men taken prisoner. Prisoners were sent to Chihuahua."

"Garcia says this was telephoned at request of Gen. Gonzalez:

"An American who was on the train today passing Villa Ahumada at 2:30 said he saw several dead Mexicans put on his train, among them a dead Mexican General. There were also several Mexican wounded. He gathered from talk that the fight was with American cavalry, nine miles west, and that the Americans were decoyed into a trap by the use of a Mexican flag of truce and they were then fired upon by machine guns and they had to retire. Report states our troops engaged were the Tenth Cavalry."

Military authorities expressed no opinion, but both reported suffered heavily in the fight, but pointed out that no information concerning the engagement other than that from Mexican sources has been received. Even the two Americans, James Maxey and J. C. Hubble, who soon after the engagement passed through Villa Ahumada, which is nine miles from the Santo Domingo ranch, on which the fight took place, and who brought the most detailed accounts to the border,

BATTERY A TO GO TO CAMP AT NEVADA TONIGHT

Will Leave Union Station at 7:30 on Special Train—150 Men, 5 Officers.

SHORT THREE HORSES

Will Depart From Armory on Special Street Cars Shortly After 6 O'Clock.

Light Battery A, National Guard of Missouri, will leave Union Station at 7:30 this evening on a special train, for Nevada, Mo., the site of the concentration camp of the State troops.

Cavalry Troop B will probably go at the same time, but the troop may board its cars in the railroad yards near its armory on Oakland avenue, instead of going to the station.

The battery will leave its armory, Grand avenue and Hickory street, on special street cars, some time after 6 o'clock. Its special train will have one stock car, for the horses; nine flat cars, for the guns and wagons, two baggage cars and four coaches.

Members of the Porto Rican Association of Battery A, consisting of former members of the battery who served with it in Porto Rico in 1898, will act as an escort of honor on the way to the station.

Capt. Frank M. Rumbold of the battery received an order from state headquarters at Nevada to recruit the battery to its full war strength, 171 men. The battery now has 160 men and 5 officers, and its equipment is practically complete except for three horses. Maj. Adams, of the headquarters staff at Nevada, also telephoned that the report that the Missouri had been ordered to the border was erroneous.

It was announced that Capt. Pim, who is first sergeant of the battery, would be left behind to carry on recruiting, and that Corporal John S. Lehmann and Private T. R. Moore would remain with him.

The men spent the morning in packing their kits, guns and tents. Capt. Rumbold announced a number of transfers and promotions. Sergt. A. Morrey was changed from Stable Sergeant to Mess Sergeant, and Private Theodore Salome was designated as Acting Stable Sergeant. Sergt. Parks was relieved as Quartermaster Sergeant and made chief of the third section. Private Joseph J. Maddox was named Acting Quartermaster Sergeant.

The officers, under Capt. Rumbold, are: First Lieut. W. W. Warner and Robert Rutledge; Second Lieutenants, Daniel Jones and Lee Sanford.

Crowd at the Armory.
A large crowd gathered at the battery armory last evening, and many automobiles stood in front of the fortress-like building. Otto F. Stifel and Claude S. Kennedy, the latter a member of the battery in the Porto Rico campaign, donated saddle horses for the use of the battery's officers.

Stifel's gift was a Texas McDonald, a particularly valuable animal.

Fred W. Lehmann, former Solicitor General of the United States, was at the armory to visit his son, Corporal Lehmann. Capt. Francis T. Bryan, 36 years old, Mexican War veteran, and oldest living graduate of West Point, was with his two grandsons, Henry C. Bryan, son of P. Taylor Bryan, and Francis T. Bryan III, son of Francis T. Bryan Jr. Both grandsons are members of the battery.

Solicits Funds to Buy Horses for Battery.
Lieut. Ted Salome of Battery A this afternoon was soliciting funds for the purchase of three horses needed by the officers of the battery. About $50 is needed. Salome expects to raise that amount before the battery trains for Nevada, Mo., tonight.

He said that their informants were all Mexicans.

Likely to Reinforce Command.
It was not considered unlikely that Gen. Pershing already has taken steps looking toward the reinforcement of the cavalry command engaged at Carrizal.

It was expected that he would take such steps as are possible to rescue the American prisoners who are on their way to Chihuahua City, to be held subject to the orders of Gen. Trevino, commanding Carranza's army.

Villa Ahumada is the Mexican field headquarters in Northern Chihuahua. News of the fight was received in Juarez early yesterday afternoon by Gonzalez. He kept the story secret until late in the afternoon, when an American, J. C. Huppel, returning to the border from the interior, brought to El Paso the news that he had seen numbers of Mexican dead along the Mexican Central Railroad tracks at Villa Ahumada, and had been told that there had been an encounter with the "gringos."

Gen. Gonzalez said his information was transmitted to him from Villa Ahumada by Col. Genovese Rivas, who commanded the Mexicans after their capture. Gen. Gomez was slain. The explanation of how the two forces came in contact.

Knew of Their Presence.
According to Gen. Gonzalez, he was informed by Gen. Gomez at Villa Ahumada, Wednesday night of the presence of the Americans westward between Villa Ahumada and El Valle. He says he immediately instructed Gen. Gomez to proceed to the Santo Domingo Ranch, where the Americans were reported "in unknown force," and advise their commander to retire to their camp.

This, he said, Gen. Gomez did yesterday morning. The American commander, whose name was not given by Gen. Gomez, is said to have replied that he was instructed to proceed to Villa Ahumada and must do so.

LAST OF MILITIA EXPECTED IN STATE CAMP TOMORROW

St. Louis Regiment Praised as First Complete Organization to Reach Mobilization Base.

HALF OF TROOPS THERE

Cavalry, Artillery and Much of Infantry Still to Arrive—Location Good.

By a Staff Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.

NEVADA, Mo., June 22.—The distinction possessed by the First Regiment, of St. Louis, of being the first entire regiment to arrive at the State Mobilization Camp here has caused much favorable comment among commanding officers of the Missouri National Guard. Officers agreed that the showing made by the First Regiment in being the first entire fighting unit to mobilize and establish itself at the State camp is commendable, and indicative of the organization's fitness as a military body.

About 2400 men, more than half of the total number of the troops expected to attend the mobilization camp, had arrived by noon yesterday. It is confidently expected that the mobilization movement will be completed tomorrow, when the remainder of the troops, including Cavalry Troop B and Battery A of St. Louis and the greater part of the Second, Third and Fourth regiments of infantry will have arrived.

Instruction for Recruits.
Four companies, 371 men, making up a part of the Second Regiment, commanded by Capt. W. A. Raupp, arrived at camp yesterday at 11 a. m. They went into camp immediately on arrival.

General orders issued yesterday by Brigadier-General Harvey C. Clark covering regulations in regard to drill and the instruction of recruits, provide that recruits be instructed in such small numbers as will permit of the greatest amount of personal attention for each man. The order details experienced noncommissioned officers to instruct the new men as rapidly as possible.

No officers or men will be excused from drill. It is announced, except on the presentation of surgeon's certificates vouching for their disability.

Gen. Clark issued an order this morning requiring a daily inspection of company kitchens by a commissioned officer of every company. Sanitary kitchens will have no place at the state camp.

The posting of the first guard detail took place yesterday morning, when a light guard of 24 men from the First Regiment, commanded by Lieut. C. J. Sodenman, was assigned to the sentry posts.

The men went into camp under the most favorable weather conditions. The day was neither too warm nor too cool.

The camp site affords ideal conditions for military maneuvers. It is a tract of 48 acres with unsurpassed surfaces for infantry, cavalry and artillery evolutions. The site is pleasing to the eye, consisting of gently rolling country, and is naturally adaptable to easy sanitation. Several brigades might be handled with ease within its bounds.

The troops are encamped on the reservation in a manner similar to that previously used as summer instruction camps. The brigade headquarters of Gen. Clark have been established on high ground, near the center of the camp. All the enlisted men are encamped to the north of a road running the length of the reservation. The officers' quarters, regimental and brigade headquarters lie south of the road. The First Regiment is encamped at the western terminus of the road. East of it in order will come the Second, Fourth and Third regiments, Troop B, of St. Louis, three batteries of field artillery and the signal corps.

Capt. Charles M. Gordon and Lieut. Oscar W. Hoop, U. S. A., Inspectors-In-Charge of the National Guard of Missouri, arrived yesterday. These officers will act as mustering officers for the Government and will inspect all troops.

Felix Nulsen, Adjutant of the First Regiment, commented upon the difference in the attitude of the men en route to a summer instruction camp and the militiamen on the way to the Nevada camp. Usually, he said, there is singing, cheering and shouting, but on this trip the men were silent and thoughtful. Apparently they were impressed, he said, by the business-like preparations of mobilization.

Mail and telegraph service were installed today at the camp. Shuttle trains will be run, commencing today, from Nevada to the camp.

Bouglass, bears out several of the details of the engagement presented by Gen. Gomez. Hubble's story was corroborated by James Maxey, another American who also was on his way to El Paso from the interior. Hubble and Maxey said that while the train was stopping at Villa Ahumada they noticed numbers of dead and wounded being brought in and were told by a Carranza Captain that a fight had taken place. The Captain informed them, they said, that a number of Americans, prisoners, had been imprisoned in a cattle car and were to be taken to Chihuahua City to be hanged.

They mentioned Mexican soldiers, who told them that several hundred Americans and 120 Mexicans had been engaged.

"The Mexican officers at Villa Ahumada treated us with the greatest courtesy," said Hubble. "They answered our questions quietly and with no show of antipathy or excitement."

"According to the story they told us, the Mexican command was concealed in the underbrush when it discovered the American cavalrymen riding toward them over the sand. Gen. Felix Gomez, the Mexican commander, immediately sent a courier asking for a parley under a flag of truce with the American com-

HALF OF GARRISON LEAVES JUAREZ, REST ABOUT TO GO

Mexican Town Opposite El Paso Expected to Be Cleared of Carranza Soldiers by Night—Civilians Also Moving.

EL PASO, Tex., June 22.—Juarez, the Mexican town across the Rio Grande from here, was more than half evacuated at 10 o'clock today by the Carranza soldiers. It is officially reported on this side that three trainloads of soldiers had gone southward during the early morning, and that three more trains had been loaded in preparation for departure.

American army officers expressed the opinion that evacuation would be completed during the day, until the 4000 Mexican soldiers were beyond the range of the American artillery.

Gen. Bell, instead of going to Fort Bliss this morning, remained downtown, with temporary headquarters at the Toltec Club, where he lives.

Capt. James Allison, Provost Marshal of El Paso, received a report from a Mexican source early today that the evacuation was under way and that a train of box cars and day coaches, heavily loaded with soldiers, some of whom were perched on the tops of the cars, had departed for the south over the Mexican Central line.

Dismantling of the Mexican wireless station was accomplished at noon, while the Carranza barracks, just across the street from the famous old Juarez mission, was stripped of all equipment. Another trainload of soldiers left for the south this afternoon.

An American newspaper man, J. C. Johnson of Dallas, Tex., who reached here recently and was attached to one of the local papers, was arrested in Juarez this afternoon. Gen. Bell and other officials immediately communicated with the Mexican authorities requesting his release.

Johnson was released on receipt of the requests from the American officials.

Throughout the night the streets in Juarez were filled with cavalry men, a number of small detachments moving from the city and into the hills beyond, while others left Juarez ostensibly to take station at border points within a few miles of El Paso. However, neither Andres Garcia, Mexican Consul at El Paso, who spent the night in the Mexican town, nor Mexican military officials would discuss the evacuation when asked asked over the telephone.

The reports of the evacuation of towns held by Carranza garrisons in the territory occupied by the expeditionary command continued today and it was thought that Gen. Trevino has ordered the redistribution of the troops composing the ring which has surrounded Gen. Pershing's forces for some weeks, to effect a realignment which the American commander began yesterday. During the night upward of 1000 Mexicans crossed the border from El Paso to Juarez and today the exodus continued. Many of them departed immediately for the south, while the town itself was being rapidly depopulated.

Through the night a steady stream of wagons carrying the household goods of citizens of the town poured out along the roads leading to the south. Whether the civilians had been warned by the military authorities to leave the town could not be learned.

Well informed persons asserted today that the main leaders have long realized that in the event of hostilities with the United States they could not hope to hold Juarez against the Americans and have planned to withdraw to a more strategic point.

U. S. SOLDIERS KILL A JAPANESE

WASHINGTON, June 22.—The killing of a Japanese liquor vendor by American soldiers near the camp at Namiquipa, Mexico, was reported to the War Department yesterday by Gen. Pershing. The man was shot in a row with three troopers who had escaped through the guard line and wanted liquor.

Gen. Pershing said an investigation had failed to reveal their identity.

American Reported Killed, Another Made Prisoner, in Sonora.
DOUGLAS, Ariz., June 22.—Jim Parks, an old prospector, was killed, and Norton Hand, an American mining man, was taken into custody and was in danger of being executed by the Mexican authorities, and two Mexicans were killed and several wounded as the result of a fight yesterday 12 miles west of Cumpas, Sonora, according to information brought here today by American refugees to Nacozari. United States military authorities have sent representatives to Gen. P. Elias Calles urging steps to insure the safety of Hand. Sixteen men from El Tigre mine reached here early today in automobiles.

Opens Fire on Americans.
"Gen. Gomez, apparently believing he was about to be attacked, raised his arm and signaled a machine gun in the rear to open fire on the Americans. The machine gun swept the cavalry ranks, causing heavy losses."

"Immediately, however, a detachment of American troops dashed forward under heavy fire, to the center of the field where Gen. Gomez and his staff were sitting on their horses. In the resultant encounter one of the cavalrymen killed the Mexican leader with his pistol, while the remainder of the Carranzista party escaped to their own lines."

The two Americans said their information was that the Carranza dead numbered 17 and that the Mexicans had taken 40 prisoners.

Andres Garcia, Mexican Consul in El Paso, crossed the Rio Grande following the first reports of the fight and remained with Gen. Gonzalez through the night. He kept in touch with Gen. Bell on the American side by telephone, however.

Thought Raid Was Being Made.
MERCEDES, Tex., June 22.—Twenty shots fired early this morning to give an alarm of fire caused residents here to believe another bandit raid was in progress and they, with the fire department, remained in their homes. As a result a dance hall, pool hall and several houses in the Mexican district were burned to the ground. Officers say the fire was incendiary.

BATTERY A MAN WAS DISCHARGED, DIDN'T KNOW IT

Officers Discovered Mistake After Armed Guard Was Sent After R. Paul Dunlap.

R. Paul Dunlap, laboratory foreman for the U. S. A. Film Co., at 3431 Olive street was released from custody at Battery A headquarters, Grand avenue and Hickory street, this afternoon, after a three-day controversy between his employers and Battery officers as to whether he should be required to go to the mobilization camp.

An armed guard was sent to the film company's office this morning and Dunlap was taken to the Battery armory at Grand avenue and Hickory street.

Dunlap himself did not know until his release that he was listed as having been discharged from the battery and one-half years ago. At that time he went to Kansas City, supporting that he was under an 18-months furlough.

Summoned Second Time.
Dunlap was notified Monday that he must report at the Armory at 3 p. m. He answered the summons, but insisted that he was still under furlough. Yesterday he was again summoned to the Armory.

His employers asked that he be released from service for at least a month, because his services were needed in developing, titling and arranging 50,000 feet of film which the company made at the Democratic national convention under contract for the National Committee. It was said only Dunlap could do this work satisfactorily.

Permission was granted yesterday afternoon for Dunlap to leave the Armory and return to his work. When he did not report this morning the armed guard was sent after him.

Ernest P. Lasche and G. B. Harney, officers of the film company, renewed their requests that Dunlap be released until the convention films were finished.

Mistake Discovered.
Then the records were examined and the mistake was discovered. It was found that when Dunlap went to Kansas City 18 months ago he was dropped from the rolls because of change of residence, though he had applied only for a furlough.

Dunlap accepted the apologies of Battery A officers and hurried back to the precious convention films. At the Armory it was explained that his name had been confused with that of another Dunlap who is now on duty and ready to start to Nevada, Mo., with the battery tonight.

GERMANS ATTACK IN THE NORTH TO SAVE AUSTRIANS

Berlin Reports Repulse of Russians Near Kovel and Koeki and Gain on the Verdun Front.

BERLIN, via London, June 22.—The repulse of heavy attacks by the Russians against Gen. Count von Bothmer's forces north of Przewoloka was announced today by the War Office.

The Russians were pushed further back on both sides of the Turia River, an affluent of the Pripiet and further to the south, according to the statement and attacks on the Tautonic lines in the region to the west of Koeki and northwest of Lutsk were unsuccessful.

LONDON, June 22.—The official communications issued by the German, Austrian and Russian war offices all indicate that, as has been anticipated, the Germans are making a determined effort to resume the initiative lost by the Russian general, Brusseloff, drive and create a diversion by a strong attack on Gen. Kuropatkin's armies in the North, especially in the Styria, on the Sty and Stokhod rivers, in an effort to prevent the Russians from receiving reinforcements.

Although up to the present the Germans are making no striking advances, they are clearly holding up their opponents. Most stubborn fighting, with fluctuating results, is proceeding around Grusiatyn, west of Koeki. The Germans also are again attacking farther north, in the Smorogn district and the region of Riga.

"The Germans are massing troops from all available quarters to repair the breaches in the Austrian defenses," says the Petrograd correspondent of the Morning Post. "From the Russian center, from the Balkan peninsula, from the Italian front and even from the Franco-Belgian front the German forces have been hurried eastward to stay the tide."

The present Russian line, "The Russian front now runs approximately from the neighborhood of Czartorysk southwestward on the left bank of the Sty by Koeki and Sokul, then strikes due west across the Stokhod near where that river is crossed by the Kovel-Rovno Railway, thence in a great curve bulging westward and over a hundred miles wide to the neighborhood of Gorochoff, back to the Sty at Begestcheko and thence southeastward to Brody, and so, nearly due south to the Dniester, where it begins again to bulge westward. The line almost reaches Kolomea, thence passes south to the crossing of the Pruth and Sereth to the Rumanian frontier."

Yesterday's Petrograd statement follows: "The total number of prisoners taken by Gen. Brusseloff from June 2 to 15, inclusive, was 3500 officers and 168,134 men. We also captured 158 guns, 550 machine guns and 180 bomb throwers, 110 artillery limbers, 34 searchlights and a large quantity of other war material."

"Desperate fighting continues in the region north of Grusiatyn, on the Sty. The village of Grusiatyn changed hands several times."

"Yesterday afternoon we entered the village and captured 11 officers, 400 men and six machine guns, but gusts of German artillery fire compelled us to evacuate the town again."

"With furious persistence the Germans operating in the region of Vorontschine, northwest of Kiselin, under cover of gusts of artillery fire from both light and heavy guns, made repeated attacks on the evening of June 9 against our young regiments. Our troops by impetuous attack put the Germans to flight, taking nine machine guns and a number of prisoners belonging to various regiments."

German Put to Flight. "At 8 o'clock on the following morning, in the region of the village of Ramineto, on the Stokhod river, northeast of Vorontschine, the enemy attacked in mass formation. The engagement became a hand-to-hand struggle, in which the Germans, unable to sustain our steady pressure, took flight, leaving in our hands wounded and prisoners not yet counted."

"Desperate fighting is in progress in the region of Kiselin and further south."

"On the extreme left wing we are still pursuing the enemy and have crossed the Sereth River."

"On the Dvina, German artillery violently bombarded the region of the Chakul bridgehead and northern sector of the Jacobstadt positions."

"On Tuesday night the Germans, after an intense bombardment of our lines in the southward of Smorogn, succeeded in penetrating our trenches, but were dislodged by our artillery, and driven back by their own lines by a counter attack."

"In other sectors in this region all enemy attempts to attack were repulsed either by our fire or by the bayonet."

Wood and Chenais, in the Verdun sector, according to the official statement issued today by the War Office.

The Germans attacked in force on both banks of the Meuse, after the usual heavy bombardment. An attack on the south slope of Dead Man Hill was checked by grenade detachments, according to the official statement.

On the right bank of the river there were violent engagements west and south of Fort Vaux, during which the Germans gained a footing in a corner of Pumont Wood, but were immediately expelled. Later they returned to the attack, when some trenches were captured. A German grenade assault north of Hill 321 was stopped by the French fire.

Lightship Sunk by Mine, First One During the War.

YARMOUTH, June 22.—The Corton lightship, which was stationed several miles off the English east coast, has been sunk by a mine, according to the Admiralty. The ship was carrying a bow, sighted a mine and gave warning. The explosion came an instant later and the force was so terrific that the vessel was raised out of the water and completely broken up. She sank immediately.

The survivors were picked up by a fishing boat after being 10 minutes in the water. There was no sign of the captain or the other members of the crew. This is the first lightship sunk during the war.

Belgians Tell of Further Rout of Germans in East.

HAVRE, June 22.—Further successes for the Belgian columns invading Germany East Africa are claimed in an official statement issued by the Belgian War Office today. The statement follows:

"Tombeur telegrams that after beating the enemy on June 6 at Kiviatwe, our advance guard again caught up with the Germans on June 12 and forced an engagement with them on the road from Kiviatwe to Kitega, east of the river Ngokoma. The enemy was routed and retreated, abandoning the killed on the field. The pursuit continued."

Lieut. Immelmann, Noted German Aviator, Reported Killed.

BERLIN, via London, June 22.—Lieut. Immelmann, whose daring exploits as an aviator have made his name known throughout the world, is reported to have been killed in a fall with an aeroplane.

Lieut. Immelmann had destroyed 15 enemy aeroplanes, more than any other German aviator except Capt. Boelcke, who has brought down 18. An unconfirmed report last week said Boelcke had been killed, but this apparently was erroneous.

Admiral Caperton Announces Marines Will Restore Order.

WASHINGTON, June 22.—Rear Admiral Caperton, commanding the American expedition in Santo Domingo, has advised the Navy Department that he has issued a proclamation announcing his forces will occupy the cities of Santiago, Moca and Lavega, and calling upon the Dominican natives to co-operate with the Americans in suppressing revolution in their republic and assisting in the restoration of order.

The proclamation sets forth that the intention of the United States is to accomplish the task without force unless opposition by the islanders make it necessary.

GREECE ACCEPTS ALL OF DEMANDS MADE BY ALLIES

Skouloudis Resigns and for the Moment Hellenes Are Without a Government.

ATHENS, Wednesday, June 21, via London, June 22.—Under heavy pressure from the entente Powers, Greece has accepted without reserve the demands presented today in a joint note by Great Britain, France and Russia. At the most critical moment Greece is without a Government.

Premier Skouloudis late today announced to the Chamber of Deputies the resignation of himself and his associates in the Cabinet and the failure for the present to obtain successors to them.

M. Skouloudis refused to receive the latest communications from the entente Powers on the ground that no Greek Cabinet existed. It was sent to the Foreign Office.

"The people were unaware what had occurred until well on toward evening, when newspapers and handbills, distributed broadcast, made known the text of the demands."

Meanwhile King Constantine returned hastily to Athens from his chateau. All the troops in the city were ordered under arms. The Deputies were summoned to the chamber, where Premier Skouloudis announced that he had resigned. The chamber adjourned immediately, cheering the retiring ministers as they left the building.

The people of Athens remained calm and in fact non-compliance with the demands of the allies apparently awakened no widespread spirit of resistance."

ALLIED FLEET AT ATHENS PORT

The dispatch says the action of the landing party "will depend upon events."

HUGHES BACK IN NEW YORK, T. R. IS EXPECTED TODAY

Not Unlikely That the Two May Meet According to Latest Developments.

FRIENDS AS GO-BETWEEN

George Von L. Meyer, Colonel's Close Friend, Saw Candidate in Providence Yesterday.

By Leased Wire From the New York Bureau of the Post-Dispatch. NEW YORK, June 22.—Developments at Oyster Bay and at Providence, R. I., yesterday, pointed to the likelihood of a meeting between Roosevelt and Charles E. Hughes in New York today. They are already in communication, it is indicated, through mutual friends, and the likelihood of a meeting is being strengthened by the fact that the two are both expected to be in New York today.

Part of the time United States Senator Henry F. Lippitt of Rhode Island was present. Although both Meyer and friends of Hughes insisted he had brought no message from Oyster Bay and that no negotiations are pending for the reunion of Progressives and Republicans, the developments at Oyster Bay indicated otherwise.

Both going to New York. Hughes arrived here today, and Roosevelt is coming. The Colonel is going direct to the Hotel Langdon, where it was announced in Oyster Bay, he has a luncheon engagement with "Progressive leaders." It was announced also that some Republicans with Roosevelt leanings will be present.

When Hughes arrived here today, he went to his temporary headquarters at a hotel. The Republican nominee for President is to meet Franklin Murphy, formerly Governor of New Jersey, tomorrow night. As he was leaving Providence he had a short talk on board his train with Herbert Parsons, Republican national committeeman from New York.

Hughes will remain here until Saturday, when he will go to his summer home at Bridgehampton, L. I. He expects to continue conferences with political leaders during his stay here for the remainder of the week.

The Colonel's friends in Oyster Bay are taking place until after June 23, when the Colonel's message to the Progressive National Committee will be read in a public place. They say, however, he will be glad to see Hughes, but he is not going to pledge his active support in the campaign unless Hughes openly asks for it.

It became known, however, that the Colonel's message to the Progressives is of a nature to highly please Hughes and his supporters. According to the Post-Dispatch correspondent at Oyster Bay, the message is known to contain the following points:

A strong declaration in favor of Charles E. Hughes for President.

An attack on the Mexican policy of the Wilson administration.

A recommendation as to the future course of the Progressive party.

Mothers Likely to Disband.

The last, it is said, will, if carried out, result in the disbanding of the organization. The Colonel will point out, it is said, that this party came into being for the sake of principle and not of party aggrandizement, and that the great principles for which it has stood—Americanism and preparedness—have been adopted by the Republicans.

The message, the Post-Dispatch correspondent is informed, has been submitted for criticism to the chief national leaders of the Progressives, and in some cases they have made suggestions which the Colonel has adopted.

A majority of the National Committee are said to be with the Colonel, and they are trying to control the more rebellious elements in the party. Their purpose, it is said here, in accordance with their understanding of Col. Hughes' message, is to deliver the Bull Moose party to Hughes intact.

Resistance against this plan has been encountered in the West and Middle West, where the Progressive sentiment is taking a strong Wilson trend. In these sections, as the leaders have reported, the Colonel is regarded as a "traitor" and his abandonment of the party is resented bitterly.

DENIES HE KILLED MEXICANS

San Francisco Man Held in Prison for Murder of Two Bandits.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 22.—Harold E. Hamilton, 35 years old, is in the Mexican military prison at Oaxaca, charged with murder of which he says he is innocent.

His letter says the two Mexican bandits he is accused of killing in April, 1915, were shot down by the native legal authorities after he had been charged with their ranch and that the accusation which brought about his arrest was preferred by surviving members of the bandit gang. Hamilton's case has been called to the attention of the California congressional delegation and of the State Department.

BUFFALO, N. Y., June 22.—In compliance with his mother's deathbed request, Willis Braitman, 19, has enlisted in Company F, Third Infantry, at Medina.

The mother, when told by a physician she was dying, begged her son to go to the front and return to her in uniform. This he did. An uncle of the boy, whose name she refuses to give, is high in United States army circles, he asserts.

HUGHES SPEAKS AT BROWN UPON AMERICAN SPIRIT

Says It Is to Be Fed in Classroom by Men Who Believe in Something.

GETS BIG OVATION

Nominee Later Confers With Von L. Meyer, Fresh From Meeting with Roosevelt.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., June 22.—Charles E. Hughes, Republican presidential nominee, yesterday told the graduating class and alumni of Brown University that the American spirit was not to be fed in the classroom by such nice balancing that conviction was not by its absence, but was to be expressed by men who have thought it all out and finally believe in something.

"And in that spirit and conviction lies our manhood," he continued. "This is not a political occasion, but it is only fair that I say this informal word to you: I had never expected to be in this position. I dread the responsibilities, for I know full well the problems that are before us. I know full well the problems that will confront us in America after this war shall end. I know all the constructive power we possess must be drawn upon to meet them, and I am here with such powers as I possess, to be placed, if they are desired, at the disposal of our country."

Before making his address the nominee had listened to a speech on "The Spirit of America," by Secretary of the Interior Lane. Mr. Lane said that sad lugubrious declarations in New England newspapers that Americans were losing the reason were not true. They were self-satisfied and weaklings," he said; "that the American spirit of achievement was as strong today as ever and that there had been no weakening in national spirit or lowering of national ideas since the birth of the republic. The nominee took up the train of thought.

Had American Spirit.

"I am here," he said, "as a member of the class of '35—a class once called the smallest and sorriest in college. We did not have in those days the things you have now. We did not have a swimming pool, a gymnasium, magnificent dormitories. I don't believe we had a whole pane of glass in most of our dormitory windows. Why talk about the American spirit—that's what kept us warm. That's what kept us alive. That's the reason we are here."

"Inspiration Copper Co. directors meet this afternoon."

"When I come back to Brown, I am not thinking of buildings as my shrine. I am thinking of men, college men, warm blooded, true-hearted American men, having freedom of speech and freedom of discussion, men having the capacity of democracy to deal with problems which our democracy is now facing and must settle."

Mr. Hughes later attended for the man of Brown University, was devoted almost wholly to Brown traditions and to recalling incidents of 35 years ago, when he attended the university.

"I merely want to say this informal word to you," he said, "that as an old graduate, I am here only in that character. I wanted to draught the old spring before I plunged into the fight."

The nominee, not on the program as a speaker, was called from his seat in the body of the audience to the platform after the last set speech. He had been cheered and welcomed by the alumni and when he led his class into the big tent on the campus to hear the closing exercises, the crowd roared.

The classes of Brown, past and present, rose one by one and gave him their favorite college yell, the "Long Brown."

Mr. Hughes then addressed for the first time a handful of gray-haired men, led off by the big class of '07 was the last. Led by a lithe cheer leader, who seemed all arms and legs, the undergraduates boomed out a noisy welcome to "Charlie Hughes."

"Only a Brown Boy."

His face was wreathed in smiles; he took a few steps to the platform and held out his hand for silence.

"I am simply a Brown boy trying to do his duty," he said, and the crowd roared again. Again and again the nominee repeated in substance that he had not come to speak to them as a political standard bearer, but as a grown-up college boy, home on a vacation.

Then he spoke of the American spirit. "We have the American spirit," he said, "but it is a fire that each generation must keep burning. It is not to be fed by cynical comment; it is not to be fed in the classroom by such a nice balancing that conviction is not by its absence. It is to be fed by men who have thought it out, who have reasoned it out from every point of view, who finally believe something."

Later the nominee held a conference with George Von L. Meyer, former Secretary of the Navy, who fresh from a conference yesterday with Col. Roosevelt and others at Oyster Bay, sought Mr. Hughes here.

After shaking hands with 1400 Republicans at the Young Men's Republican Club at 6 o'clock, the nominee was the dinner guest of Gov. Beekman. There were other guests, mostly leading residents of Providence. After the dinner Mr. Hughes was given of honor at an informal reception given by President Faunce of Brown. He departed after midnight for New York.

Officers of U-35 Go Ashore at Cartagena, Spain, With Autograph Document, Supposed to Be Message of Thanks.

MADRID, June 22.—A German submarine arrived today at Cartagena. The officers disembarked with a confidential autograph letter for King Alfonso.

A submarine, the U-35, it is officially announced, is anchored alongside the Spanish cruiser Cataluna. The secretary of the German embassy at Madrid has departed for Cartagena to receive the German Emperor's letter, which is supposed to be thanks to King Alfonso for the reception given to interned Germans from Kamerun.

The section of the press which favors the German side in the war publishes articles today extolling the German sailors for their naval exploits. The submarine came from Pola, the Austrian naval base.

MISSOURI MOOSE THREATEN TO GO OVER TO WILSON

Leaders Throughout State Resent Attempt to Deliver Vote to Republicans.

The Progressive party leaders throughout the State, in letters to the party organization in St. Louis, declare that unless the Progressive National Committee at its meeting in Chicago next Monday selects a new candidate for President to lead the organization, they will vote for Woodrow Wilson.

With almost unanimous voice the party leaders from nearly every county in the State bitterly resent the Roosevelt plan to deliver them to Hughes. The party leaders assert there are 50,000 Progressives in this State who will vote for Wilson and the Democratic ticket if the national committee, following the leadership of Roosevelt, orders the abandonment of the Progressive party.

A canvass of the county and district chairmen and secretaries of the State has been made by the Bull Moose organization to determine the attitude of the party in this state with respect to what should be done in Chicago next week. Some of the national leaders, notably Gifford Pinchot, have also interested themselves in finding out how the Missouri leaders feel toward what is apparently the Roosevelt plan to deliver the Progressive vote to the Republican party.

Perkins May Control. The Missouri leaders are almost convinced that Roosevelt and George W. Perkins will be able to control the national committee when it meets Monday, and will be able to carry their plan to break up the Progressive party. They are relying upon such leaders as Gifford Pinchot, Victor Murdock of Kansas, chairman of the National Committee, and Gov. Johnson of California, to make a fight for the Progressive party, and if they should find themselves in control of the committee, it is probable that Gov. Johnson would be selected as the Presidential candidate.

The bitterness of the Bull Moose leaders of Missouri toward Col. Roosevelt, for four years their hero, is almost inconceivable. They are now accusing him of having no sincerity in his recent political activities, as far as the Progressive party is concerned, and charge that his only purpose was to head back to the Republican party.

Harrison County Progressive leaders, in letters to the organization, stated that if Col. Roosevelt attempted to deliver the Progressives to Hughes at least three-fourths of the party would vote for Wilson. The same report was made from Hickory County, while from Warren County the report was that practically the entire Progressive vote would go to Wilson, because the Progressives would rather help the Democrats than to ally up with the old guard—Penrose, Barnes, Smoot, Crane and the others—who put over the Hughes nomination at Chicago.

The Macon County leaders reported in favor of continuing the Progressive party, but said if that could be done they were for Wilson. Reports from the same source came from Laclede, Lynn, Cass Girardeau and many other counties.

Whether the Progressive State ticket continues in the field in Missouri will be retained here, but if there is no national ticket there probably will be no State ticket in Missouri.

Claimed to Be Power. The Progressives are confident that they hold the balance of power in Missouri, and say that unless their own party has a candidate for President, Wilson will carry Missouri by not less than 75,000. The party leaders say they can find absolutely no reason for supporting Hughes, while they are fairly well satisfied with the record of the Wilson administration.

The Democratic platform makes a powerful appeal to the Progressives, the leaders say. The American plank speaks the real sentiment of the American people, they say, and is much more satisfactory than the declaration of the Progressive party platform on the same subject. The platform of the Progressive party was toned down in the hope that the Republicans would finally accept Roosevelt as their candidate for President.

Chicago wished to make their leaders as nearly like the Republican platform that there would be nothing to quarrel over. This attitude resulted in the adoption of a platform that failed to satisfy any of the radicals in the Progressive party.

Mexicans Refused to Be Captured. SAN BENITO, Tex., June 22.—A Mexican, later identified as having taken part in the bandit raid here last week, was captured early today at the residence of a Texas ranch near Yacou, 50 miles from San Benito, where he had called for food.

MARRIED MAN KILLS WOMAN, RIVAL AND SELF

Samuel Hunter Ends Own Life After Shooting Two Others at Dahlgren, Ill.

LOST MONEY SPECULATING

Told Wife He Was Ruined and Intimated She Would Not See Him Alive Again.

Samuel Hunter, a flour dealer and grain speculator of St. Louis and East St. Louis, shot and killed Mrs. Laura Sawyer at Dahlgren, Ill., at 11 o'clock Tuesday night and after mortally wounding Jacob Stutch, ended his own life. Stutch died at 8 o'clock yesterday evening. Jealousy and losses by speculation are the attributed causes.

The shooting took place at the home of Mrs. Sawyer. According to the anti-mortem statement of Stutch, Mrs. Sawyer told Hunter, when he came to her door, that Stutch was there and that he could not come in. He stepped inside and began firing. Mrs. Sawyer was struck by two bullets and Stutch by the same number. Hunter shot himself through the head.

Beulah Sawyer, 10-year-old daughter of Mrs. Sawyer, awakened by the shots, found the three lying on the floor. Hunter was 53 years old. He formerly owned a flour mill at Dahlgren, Ill. He sold it and speculated unprofitably in grain and livestock. He was in St. Louis Tuesday. When he went home in the evening he told his wife that he was ruined.

After going to bed he complained of the heat and arose and dressed. He told his wife good-by and intimated that it would be the last good-by, but he had talked that way before and she did not take his remarks seriously.

Mrs. Sawyer conducted a hotel up to a month ago, when it burned. She continued to keep boarders. One of them was Stutch, a bachelor, 65 years old, whose attentions to Mrs. Sawyer caused comment. Hunter visited Mrs. Sawyer, who was 45 years old, was separated from her husband, who is a merchant at Elletts, Ill.

HARRY B. GARDNER RELEASED ON BOND INSURANCE CASE

Amount Reduced From $10,000 to $5000—In Cell for Nearly Forty-eight Hours.

After being in jail nearly 48 hours Harry B. Gardner, promoter of the so-called "win insurance campaign," was released on a $5000 bond at noon today. The bond was signed by the United States Fidelity & Guaranty Co.

Gardner, who is awaiting a new trial on charges of kidnapping, said the mail, was surrendered by his bondsman, Chris Schwacker Tuesday afternoon. His original bond was $10,000, but it was reduced to $5000 yesterday by Judge Dyer.

When he was taken to the Marshall's office today Gardner said a period of imprisonment had been a relief because it gave him freedom from the demands of Schwacker for interest on the $10,000 bond.

MISS YOUKER NOT TO TESTIFY AT TRIAL OF ORPET

Prosecution Announces She Will Not Appear for Either Side.

WAUKEGAN, Ill., June 22.—Miss Celeste Youker, the young school instructor whose testimony was expected yesterday to conclude the evidence of the State in the trial of Will H. Orpet for the alleged murder of Marion Lambert, his former sweetheart, will not take the stand for either side in the case. This was announced early today upon the authority of the young woman herself, and State's Attorney Dody said she would not be called. It had been stated previously that she would appear on the witness stand for the State at yesterday's session, but other matters took up the Court and jury's time.

These consisted principally of evidence relating to what were said to have been confessions made by Orpet during his confinement in the Waukegan jail and argument of counsel concerning certain letters which Orpet wrote to the dead girl during a period of nearly a year. The State is expected to conclude its evidence today.

The motion which counsel for Orpet will make to the jury will be based largely on the alleged incompetency of much of the State's evidence.

The motion will be made as soon as the last witness for the prosecution has been heard. The attorneys, James H. Wilkerson and Ralph F. Potter, will move that the following be stricken from the record as being incompetent and immaterial in relation to the charge of murder:

1. Orpet's reported engagement to Celeste Youker.

2.—The presence of cyanide of potassium in the ash heap where it is alleged to have been thrown on orders of Orpet's father four days after Marion's death.

3.—Testimony as to foot prints in the snow leading away from Marion's body.

4.—Testimony of the two telephone operators who said that they overheard Orpet talking to Marion on the night of Feb. 9, pleading with her to meet him that night and saying that he had something that "would fix" her alleged delicate condition.

5. Testimony as to the three circular white spots on Marion's coat, identified by chemists as having been made by a super-saturate of potassium cyanide.

The lawyers will argue that with this evidence removed, the State has not proved a case and ask the Court to discharge the defendant. As to the white spots, it will be charged that "they got there by a miracle or somebody put them there."

This will be based on the fact that a month elapsed before the coat was sent to a chemist for examination. According to the defense the footprints objected to have not been identified as those of Orpet, and might have been made by anybody prowling about the woods; the telephone conversation was not identified as having taken place between Orpet and Marion, and nothing save hearsay has been produced to show that Orpet and Miss Youker were engaged.

ARCHITECT GETS $1525 BY VERDICT FOR DRAWING PLANS

Defendant Says He Wanted to Expand but $35,000 on House. Lowest Bid Was $90,000.

William J. Beattie, an architect of Webster Groves, with offices at 330 Olive street, won a judgment of $1525.25 against Thomas Ward McManus, 2741 Lucas avenue, in Circuit Judge Jones' court this morning.

The suit was for payment for drawing plans for a residence for McManus on Manchester road. The plans were drawn in June, 1912, but the house was never built. McManus stated that his specifications called for a maximum cost of $35,000 and the lowest bid was $90,000.

Beattie said that the bids were high because of changes suggested in the original plans by McManus, including a bathhouse, a ballroom without columns, a billiard room for two instead of one table, a bowling alley, tile finish in the kitchen, iron bars on all windows and the building to be fireproof.

Best Treatment for All Complexion Ills

I'll tell you my panacea for all complexion troubles. If the skin be colorless, sallow, muddy, over-red, if it be rough, chapped, blotchy, pimply or freckled, there's nothing that will so surely overcome the condition as ordinary mercurized wax. The wax literally takes off a bad complexion—absorbs the dead and near-dead particles of surface skin, so gently, gradually, you experience no inconvenience at all. A new complexion is then in evidence, one so clear, spotted, delicately soft and beautiful. You look many years younger. One ounce of this wax, procurable at any drug store, will rejuvenate even the worst complexion. It is smeared on like cold cream before retiring and removed morning with warm water. The mercurized wax habit is a healthier and more economical one than the cosmetic habit.

If the skin be wrinkled or creased, bathe it daily in a solution made by dissolving an ounce of powdered rasbule in a half pint witch hazel. This acts immediately, affecting even the deepest wrinkles. Miss Desmond, in Beauty's Mirror.—ADV.

Thin Folks Who Want to Get Fat

Increase in Weight Ten Pounds or More

"I'd certainly give most anything to be able to eat up a few pounds and stay that way," declares every excessively thin man or woman. Such a result is not impossible, despite past failures. Most thin people are victims of malnutrition, a condition which prevents the fatty elements of food from being taken up by the blood as the blood is the power of nutrition are normal. Instead of getting into the blood much of the fat and flesh producing elements stay in the intestines until they pass from the body as waste.

To correct this condition and to produce a healthy, normal amount of nutritive processes must be artificially supplied with every meal. Nature has denied them. This can probably best be accomplished by eating a carefully selected and absolutely harmless food. A careful combination of six splendid assimilative agents. Taken with meals they mix with the food to turn the magenta and give of what you have eaten into rich, ripe nourishment for the tissues and blood. The effect has been in many cases reported remarkable. Reported gains of from ten to twenty-five pounds in a single month are by no means infrequent. Yet the action is purely natural and absolutely harmless. Sargol is sold by Wolf-Williams Drug Co., John A. Sargol's Food, Drug Store, Walcott Drug Co., Jones & Dolph Drug Co. & a dozen and more drug stores everywhere, and every package contains a guarantee of weight increase or money back.

NOTE—Sargol is recommended only as a flesh-builder, and while excellent results in cases of nervous indigestion, etc., have been reported, care should be taken about using it unless a gain of weight is desired.—ADV.

RUSSIA SAID TO HAVE 11,000,000 WELL-ARMED MEN

Berlin, However, Not Worried by Brussloff's Offensive, Post-Dispatch Man Finds.

NO FEAR FOR LEMBERG

German Officials Call Slav Successes "Annoying," but Not of Great Importance.

By KARL H. VON WIEGAND, A Staff Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch and New York World. (Copyright, 1916, by Press Pub. Co.)

BERLIN, June 20. Via Amsterdam, June 22.—That Russia's offensive in East Galicia and Bukovina has gotten "stuck" and the advance of the numerically overwhelming superior Russian armies has come to a standstill, is the opinion in governmental circles.

This belief is based upon the reports received yesterday and today from Austrian general headquarters. Without in any way underestimating the political effect of what is characterized as the "temporary Russian success" or its moral influence in encouraging the public of France, Italy or England, German circles profess to have felt no real anxiety and declare that strategically the results would prove of comparatively little value to the Russians.

As one high officer put it, "It's decidedly annoying, but by no means tragic in its bearing upon the general campaign in the East." Operations, in understanding, are under way from the German side to counter the Russian movement.

No Fear for Lemberg. Lemberg, I was told, was not regarded as being in danger of recapture by the Russians.

There are no foreign correspondents with either the Austrian or the German armies engaged in the Galicia and Bukovina struggle. The German and Austrian correspondents who have gotten somewhere near the battle scenes continue describing the terrible onslaughts of the Russian masses, in waves from eight to 15 deep.

It is asserted that at some points of the attack upon the Austro-Hungarian line the Russians had a superiority of five and sometimes 10 to one.

The statement was made to me by an important Russian at Christiania on Saturday, that Russia now has more than 11,000,000 well-equipped soldiers under arms.

All reports indicate that the effect of the German taking an energetic part in the game is already making itself felt upon the Russian advance, which, while perhaps not yet actually stopped, is beginning to falter at a number of points.

Linsingen Checks Russians. Gen. von Linsingen, in the battles of the 15th to the 18th, not only appeared to have thoroughly at least checked the Russian forward movement on his front, but at some places forced a retrograde movement upon them. Linsingen's pressure is counteracting heavily upon the Russian wing.

Linsingen has advanced on the line between Vladimir-Volynski and Lutsk, from Boronowicz to Cholnowka. His advance guard is now eastward of the lakes and by Securin and Jasnowka.

The Russians across the Dorezino Creek tributary of the Stokhod, flowing north parallel to the Styk and 15 miles west of it.

The turning point of this new line is near Novomosor. In this movement Linsingen took 3000 Russian prisoners.

The "seesaw tug-of-war" game in the east has again given the Russians possession of Czernowitz. This city has changed administration, alternately Russian and Austro-Hungarian, more often than any other town of equal importance in the war. The eccentric Russian artillery here is described as having been so terrible that it literally swept the Austro-Hungarian positions away. Rather than expose the town to the destructive Russian artillery, the Austro-Hungarians declare, they evacuated.

Pressure Increased on Center. Gen. Brussloff appears to be increasing his pressure on the center of the middle sector, but this movement is apparently being strongly affected by the counter pressure of the Germans against the Russian line in the northern part of Volhynia.

The next days should develop how far the Russians will be able to carry out their plan of a concentric offensive for the possession of Lemberg, the capital of Galicia, which was retaken from the Russians last June. Strategically, the present Russian successes can be said to be only of practical value and real importance if Brussloff is able to follow them up and attain Lemberg as a goal; otherwise the Russian movement has merely political and moral importance, but comparatively little military value.

Gen. Brussloff appears to be the first Russian strategist who has proved himself worthy of the mettle of the German strategists. Overconfidence on the part of the commander of the Austro-Hungarian army on the sector, crushed by the Russians, together with failure to know what the Russians were preparing opposite his line, appears to have been more or less responsible for the results of the surprisingly heavy onslaught.

Remedial measures, I understand, have been taken in his case. Aside from the admission that the Russian offensive and its unpleasant results for the Austro-Hungarians may tend to re-awaken new hopes in France and Italy, thereby prolonging the war, governmental circles here declare they have no anxiety over the developments in the Russian theater of war in the next weeks.

$2,000,000 ORE SMELTING PLANT IS PLANNED HERE

Promoters Say Eastern Capital Will Permit Construction Work Within 90 Days.

Work on a new $2,000,000 smelting and chemical plant to be erected in St. Louis will begin within ninety days if plans of R. Bonastre and M. J. Mandulay, representing New York and Havana capital, are successful.

When seen by a Post-Dispatch reporter the planters today, Mandulay was engaged with final papers for a lease on 20 acres of ground just south of the River Des Peres along the Missouri Pacific-Iron Mountain Railroad tracks. He said that the lease would probably be signed today.

The plant will be devoted to the production of one pigment under several new patents, according to Mandulay. He denied that any of the product would be war supplies. The raw material will come from the mines of Missouri and Arkansas. Mandulay declined to name the others backing the enterprise. He said that Havana and New York capital was responsible for the plant.

When in full operation 1000 men will be employed. However, at the start only about 300 or 400 will be used.

It is understood the company has an option on an adjoining tract about the same size as the one it intends to lease. Mandulay said today the construction of the buildings would begin just as soon as the lease is signed.

RELATIVES LOSE TRACE OF COUPLE SEEKING TO WED

Con P. Curran and Miss May F. Golden Tried to Marry in Edwardsville Yesterday, but Failed.

Con P. Curran, 24 years old, of 5888 Romaine place, and Miss Mae Golden, 20, of 1229 South King's highway, who tried to get married yesterday in Edwardsville, had not been heard from by relatives this morning.

The couple spent the greater part of yesterday afternoon trying to get a priest to marry them. The Rev. J. D. Metzler of St. Boniface Church and the Rev. C. A. Kelly of St. Mary's Church refused to perform the ceremony because the couple had no dispensation. They returned the license and left Edwardsville on an interurban car.

Curran is a son of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Curran of 5888 Romaine place. Mrs. Curran said today there was no opposition to the marriage, which was to have taken place in the fall. Miss Golden is a daughter of John Golden, a saloon keeper at 1200 King's highway. He said today he had given his consent to the engagement.

"HANK" WEEKE MUST TAKE EXAMINATION, ROGERS SAYS

Will Recommend Fixing of Date for Test to Determine Whether Politician Retains City Job.

Thomas H. Rogers, chairman of the Efficiency Board, today said that at this afternoon's session of the board he would recommend the fixing of a date for the examination of Henry L. (Hank) Weeke, former saloon keeper and Republican ward politician, to determine whether he is qualified to retain his $150 a month job as Chief Inspector of Excavations.

Weeke has been on the payroll since last August without taking an examination. There are 528 inspectors on the city payroll, drawing aggregate salaries of about $50,000 a month. Rogers believes that if certain of these jobs were merged with others the force could be greatly reduced. One purpose of the examination, he said, will be to learn whether there is any necessity for the position which Weeke holds.

RUMPUS IN ZOO SOCIETY OVER A NEW APPOINTMENT

George Dieckman Wants Experienced Man for Superintendent's Job.

The tastes and foibles of the monstrous hippopotamus, the fads and whims of the delicate giraffe, the illnesses and eccentricities of the writhing boa constrictor and even the idiosyncrasies of the rhinoceros—animals which the city zoo has not, but hopes to have—have stirred up a fuss in the St. Louis Zoological Society and in the Zoo Board of Control.

Whether Hippo should take medicine out of a spoon or a bucket and whether Mme. Boa Constrictor should have her sore fang treated or be allowed to suffer and probably die are not the direct issues in the controversy, but such questions have been raised in connection with the proposed appointment of a superintendent of the zoo.

One Man Resigns.
Because the majority of Zoological Society directors favored passing over Martin Angermeyer, for 18 years head animal keeper of the zoo, and employing an out-of-town expert to fill the new office of superintendent, Robert H. Keiser, a member of the Zoo Board of Control, resigned from the Zoological Society.

Now George E. Dieckman, president of the Zoo Board of Control, declares that the Zoo Board is in sympathy with the plan favored by the Zoological Society directors and that it will ask Keiser to resign from the board unless he voluntarily quits it.

The office of superintendent of the zoo was created two years ago but has never been filled. It pays $300 a month. Angermeyer, the head animal keeper, who receives $100 a month, has been virtually in charge of the zoo and Keiser thinks he is entitled to promotion to the better-paying job.

Experienced Man Wanted.
That is where the rub comes. Dieckman says Angermeyer is a good man, but that he has had no experience in caring for such animals as the hippopotamus, rhinoceros, giraffe, elephant, boa constrictor and others which the Zoo Board hopes to acquire.
"These animals are too expensive to experiment on," Dieckman said. "The Zoo Board could not accept as a gift a hippopotamus, because we have no one who can care for it. People who might donate costly animals to the zoo are afraid to do it because they know the animals might die for want of proper care."

The boa constrictor, a snake that weighs when grown about 250 pounds, is subject to cancer in the mouth, causing it to refuse to eat. The only way to save its life is to overpower it and stuff food down its throat. Dozens of guinea pigs are tied together with a string and forced down the animal's throat. In the meantime the cancer must be cut out of the snake's mouth—a very dangerous operation. There is not an ordinary veterinary surgeon anywhere who would know how to do about it. Only a man who has had years of training with such animals could do it."

Hired "Jim" a Keeper.
Dieckman said that when the Zoo Board bought the elephant, "Jim," with the school children's money it was necessary to employ the elephant's old keeper, because there was no one at the zoo qualified to feed and doctor elephants. He related an incident in "Jim's" life since she has been here, which he said, would have caused the whole city a lot of worry if it had not been for "Jim's" experienced keeper. One night "Jim" devoured eight feet of rubber hose. One of the attendants caught her in the act as the last foot went down. The keeper was told of it, but he said it wouldn't hurt her, and it didn't. But for the keeper, Dieckman said, "Jim" might have been killed by veterinarians trying to "save" her.
Dieckman has suggested the appointment of Joseph Stephan, assistant superintendent of the Cincinnati Zoo, as superintendent here. He said Stephan has had 42 years' experience with all kinds of animals that are found in zoos and that he was once an agent of Hagenback, the German trainer of wild animals. Stephan was here yesterday to look over the zoo, but he did not tell Dieckman whether he would accept the place if it is offered.

FIRM NOT SELLING HORSEFLESH
Carondelet Packing Company Customers Misunderstood Article.

In reporting last Sunday that Wills & Bockstruck, in Carondelet, had slaughtered 33 horses in six months the Post-Dispatch, in a headline, stated that a "Carondelet Packing Concern" had obtained a permit to supply horseflesh because of its cheapness. The Carondelet Packing Co. has received telephone calls from customers who mistook that firm for the one slaughtering horses. The Carondelet Packing Co. is near the Wills & Bockstruck firm, but has no connection with slaughtering horses.

ONE OF AMERICAN AIRMEN WOUNDED IN GERMAN FIGHT

Special Cable to the Post-Dispatch and the New York World.
(Copyright, 1916, by Press Pub. Co.)
PARIS, June 22.—Three American airmen and their French commanding officer fought numerous German aeroplanes on Sunday, with the result that Corp. Clyde Balsley of San Antonio, Tex., was severely wounded. The other Americans engaged were Kiffin Rockwell and Norman Prince, the latter of whom miraculously escaped death. One German bullet cut through his leather helmet. Balsley's injuries were caused, the French authorities state, by an explosive bullet, forbidden by the Geneva convention.

The action occurred inside of the German lines, and the Americans avoided falling into German hands by a narrow margin, as they were almost forced to descend behind the German trenches. To escape a horde of aircraft, including Fokkers, they dropped almost straight downward, but succeeded in landing a few hundred yards within the French side of the firing line.

The entire squadron had been ordered to follow its French Captain over the German lines, to form a barrier to protect artillery observers. Only the three Americans were with their commander when the position was reached over the German trenches. The little group suddenly found itself in the midst of two scores of German machines flying at various heights, among which were 15 of the latest type, faster than the Americans' machines, and carrying a passenger to the rear and flank machine guns, while the pilot handled the forward machine gun.
The American squadron circled around the enemy machines under a heavy and continuous fire. Finally, one German swooped toward the French lines, and the Americans swooped after him. The other Germans immediately went to the rescue. A mixup followed, the Germans attacking on all sides.

The French commander saw Prince and Balsley capsize in an apparent death drop, and, believing them to be killed, signaled Rockwell to make for home. Prince, however, righted his machine near the ground, returning unscathed, with a perforated helmet.
Balsley owes his life to his feet being strapped into the controls, as the bullet struck his hip, exploding in the wound. Although it was his first battle, the Texan regained command of his machine and landed safely. The machine, however, was wrecked on landing. Balsley explained that his machine gun jammed after the first shot. His wound is not believed to be dangerous. Balsley and Sgt. Chapman, who is recovering from a head wound and expects to fly soon, have been named for the military medal. Sgt. Rockwell has the medal now and Lieut. Thaw is soon to get the badge of the Legion of Honor.

Five Killed in Munitions Explosion.

SLAYER OF SWEETHEART FREED

Unwritten Law Invoked in Trial of Philadelphia Girl.
PHILADELPHIA, June 22.—Ida Riehl, 18 years old, was acquitted yesterday of a charge of murdering her sweetheart, Edmund Hauptfuehrer, in May, 1915, when he spurned her entreaties to marry her. The jury returned a verdict after deliberating for less than an hour. While the defense based its case on a plea of temporary insanity, it virtually invoked the unwritten law.

PLANS TO CARE FOR MILITIAMEN'S FAMILIES IN NEED

Mercantile Club Appoints Committee to Give Help Far as Possible.

AID FROM OTHER BODIES

Fraternal Order Will Pay Premiums on Insurance of Its Members in First Regiment.

THE Post-Dispatch will be glad to print the names of firms and corporations which will provide for employees who enlisted in the First Regiment, Battery A or Troop B, by paying salaries in whole or in part while the militiamen are away, or making other provisions for their families.

Measures for helping the families of members of the national guard who may need such help, during the absence of the militiamen on military duty, are being taken by a number of firms, organizations and individuals.

Mound City Council of the National Union, a fraternal insurance society, has decided to pay the insurance premiums of its members who belong to the First Regiment, national guard of Missouri, while they are away, and to give any aid that may be needed by their families.

The Mercantile Club, through a committee formed yesterday, will help needy families of militiamen. Cases reported at the club will be investigated by a committee, and relief will be given to the extent of the resources at hand. The committee consists of J. W. Estes, J. B. Fischer, Fritz Nesbit, Walter Saunders and Lloyd O. Brightfield.

The Stacey Dry Cleaning Co., 1325 Market street, which has two employees in the First Regiment, has announced that they will receive half pay, and will be employed on their return.

The American Radiator Co., through C. E. Redfield, manager of its St. Louis branch, announced that its four employees who are in the national guard will receive full pay, and will have their jobs on their return.

The Manhattan Rubber Manufacturing Co. branch office, 115 North Second street, which has one employee in the militia, will give him full pay and re-employment.

The local office of the Erie Railroad, 423 Pierce Building, has received copies of a general order, that employees of the road who are members of the national guard will receive full pay, and after their return, will be entitled to the usual vacation.

Paul Brown, broker, said yesterday he would be willing to give $100 a month to a fund for the benefit of the families of national guard members. He said other "stay-at-homes" should contribute to such a fund, and that employers should not have to bear the entire burden. This plan is the same as that suggested by Victor Ehling, a musician, of 343A Crittenton street, who said he would give $10 a month.

The Provident Association has named a special committee to handle funds entrusted to the association for this branch of relief work. The National Security League will also aid in the work, and Edward K. Love, chairman of the executive committee of the local organization, has telegraphed to the national office, asking that this movement be taken up nationally.

Charles Remington, a druggist of 4501 Olive street, has announced that he will furnish, free of charge, to the families of absent national guardsmen, any drugs or medicines prescribed by a physician.

R. W. Boisselier, public accountant, with an office in the Railway Exchange Building, has written to Congressman Meeker, asking him to introduce a bill providing that the Government shall provide for the dependents of enlisted men. He predicted that the passage of such a measure would solve the problem of recruiting.

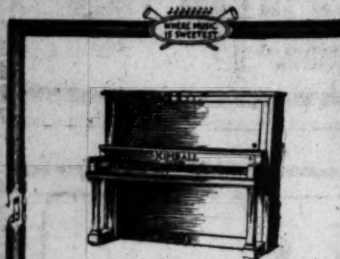

State Mutual Life Insurance Policies Not Affected by Service.
The St. Louis office of the State Mutual Life Insurance Co. of Worcester, Mass., in room 212, Chemical Building, has been notified from the company's main office that no extra premium will be charged to persons insured under policies issued before last Sunday, who shall engage in military and naval service, and their policies will not be invalidated.

Federal Employees to Get Pay in Militia.
WASHINGTON, June 22.—Government employees who enlist with the national guard for Mexican border service will receive pay for at least 45 days of their absence. It was said no plan could be worked out whereby they could receive pay for their full period of enlistment without a special act of Congress.

A Fascinating Town.

FORD WILL FIRE EMPLOYEES WHO GO WITH THE MILITIA
Many of His 20,000 Workmen Will Relinquish Places on Enlist in the National Guard.

DETROIT, Mich., June 22.—In line with his pacifist policies, Henry Ford has announced that any employees of the Ford Motor Co. who are members of the Michigan National Guard not only will not receive pay while absent, but will forfeit their places as well. Many Ford employees who intend to enlist as recruits in the guard likewise relinquish their places. It was said. At the office of Ford information as to how many militiamen were included in his 20,000-odd employees here was refused.

A Wonderful Value, Indeed

We consider this one of the most attractive values we ever offered in this line—this bed is in beautiful Vernis Martin gold finish, which closely resembles solid brass, and is more durable than most brass beds, as it will not tarnish or lose its exquisite finish—it is extra large and massive—and in a design that will please the most particular taste.

Note the Massive Proportions

This Bed has 2½-inch posts—1 1-16-inch fillers and extra large 4½-inch caps—proportions that have seldom, if ever, been offered in a bed at anything like the price we name—the construction throughout is the very best and can be relied upon to give years of thorough service and satisfaction.

Oxidized Finish if Preferred

We also offer this identical Bed in beautiful oxidized finish if preferred—and with each of these Beds we include a well-made Mattress and all-iron Spring, with woven-wire top—the entire outfit at actually less than you ordinarily would pay for the bed alone—an offering that is well worth your prompt attention.

16th and CassPLANS TO DRAFT
MONTAGMEN INTO REGULAR ARMY

Baker to Offer Resolution to House Providing for Voluntary Transfers.

WASHINGTON, June 22.—A resolution authorizing the President to draft members of the national guard willing to take the Federal oath immediately into the regular army under the terms of the new army bill was submitted by Secretary Baker today to Chairman Hay of the House Military Committee. Hay said he would call it up tomorrow and press for immediate action.

If possible, Hay said he would obtain consideration of the resolution by unanimous consent, but he was prepared to ask for a special rule if necessary. The resolution differs slightly from the provision of the measure originally prepared for bringing the national guard into Federal service in that it would provide for service during "the period of the emergency" instead of "the period of the war."

Members of the active guard of the reserves in all states, territories and the District of Columbia who take the new oath would be subject to draft under the resolution. The President would be authorized to combine various incomplete units in order to bring them up to war strength and to appoint officers for them.

The scheme of reorganization for the regular army under the new army bill has been announced. It provides for the addition of seven regiments of infantry, two of cavalry, three of field and heavy artillery and two of engineers. The act takes effect July 1, and by the plan announced the regiments composing the first annual increment of increase will be created on that date, giving General Funston 12 new regimental units.

Three of the new infantry regiments will be formed in the foreign service. The Thirty-first Infantry will be composed of the First Battalion of the Fifteenth Infantry, expanded to a full regiment and posted in the Philippines. By a process of selecting alternate non-commissioned officers and men from the Eighth and Thirtieth Infantry, now in the islands, the new regiment will be given a skeleton organization complete in every detail but which must be filled up with Second Lieutenants and recruits to the necessary strength.

In the same way the Thirty-second Infantry will be built up out of drafts from the First and Second Regiments in Hawaii; the Thirty-third from the Fifth and Tenth in the Canal Zone; the Thirty-fourth at El Paso from the Seventh, Twentieth and Twenty-third; the Thirty-fifth at Douglas, Ariz., from the Eleventh, Eighteenth and Twenty-second; the Thirty-sixth at Brownsville from the Fourth, Twenty-sixth and Twenty-eighth; the Thirty-seventh at Fort Sam Houston from the Third, Ninth and Thirtieth. The Sixteenth and Seventeenth Cavalry also will be formed on the border out of men from the First, Third, Sixth, Eighth and Fourteenth Regiments; the Seventeenth and Eighteenth Artillery from the Third, Fifth and Sixth Regiments. The Ninth Heavy artillery equipped with field howitzers, will be organized in Hawaii. By expending each of the three engineer battalions into a regiment the additional units of these troops will be produced.

Officers say the reorganization can take place on the border without impairing the efficiency of the force. All the officers necessary for the new regiments will be drawn from the existing organization and promotions all along the line will follow. The effect will be to leave the army virtually without Second Lieutenants, and it is here that the additional officers provided for under the bill will be fed into the service. There will be many promotions among the enlisted men. New noncommissioned officers will have to be selected in both the old and new regiments, as it is planned to distribute the seasoned men equally. They will be found in the ranks of the privates and the gap to be filled will be only in the grade of private.

GREGORY EXPECTED TO BE NAMED JUSTICE NEXT WEEK

President Said to Have Virtually Decided Upon Attorney-General for Supreme Bench Vacancy.

WASHINGTON, June 22.—Nomination of Attorney-General Thomas W. Gregory to succeed Charles E. Hughes on the Supreme Court was said today by persons in President Wilson's confidence to have been virtually decided upon. If the nomination goes to the Senate next week, as it is now believed it will, it is regarded as certain that John W. Davis, solicitor-general, will be named Attorney-General.

PROFESSOR AT CHICAGO U.
ENDS LIFE; HAD BEEN ILL

CHICAGO, June 22.—Prof. Robert F. Hoxie, professor of political economy in the University of Chicago, ended his life in his home today by cutting his throat, according to a report made to the police.

Prof. Hoxie is believed to have been despondent because of continued ill health. He graduated from the University of Chicago in 1898 and held successive chairs at Cornell College, Ia.; Washington University, St. Louis; Washington and Lee University and Cornell University, before he returned to the University of Chicago in 1906 as instructor in political economy. He was given the chair of political economy in 1908. Prof. Hoxie was the author of one book, "Scientific Management and Labor," which was published in 1914, and was associate editor of the Journal of Political Economy. He was 4 years old.

OFFICERS' RESERVE
DONATES AUTOS TO FIRST REGIMENT

Business and Professional Men In Organization Raise $1000 to Buy Machines.

Two automobiles, the gift of members of the Officers' Reserve Corps, will be added to the staff equipment of the First Regiment, in camp at Nevada. The corps, which has a membership of 223 business and professional men, last night raised $1000 for the purchase of these cars, and the amount will be increased, and the cars forwarded within a few days.

The corps drilled in the Armory and appointed a committee to take up the task of supplying the corps with rifles and other accoutrements. It was decided to ask the War Department for a small part of the equipment which would have been used at the Fort Benjamin Harrison training camp, near Indianapolis, that has been abandoned. The corps also appointed a committee, consisting of Dr. Eugene Senseney, J. L. Berger Davis and Sam McPheters, to co-operate with other organizations in aiding the families of guardsmen. A military airplane is to be presented by the Missouri State Aeronautical Society to the First Regiment. Albert Bond Lambert, who is in charge of the plane, said the machine would be a biplane of the most approved military design and capable of a speed of nearly 100 miles an hour. Lambert said it was difficult to get a machine, because of the great volume of foreign war orders being filled by the Wright and Curtiss factories. He favors an embargo on such exports, if necessary, until the American army is properly supplied.

CANNON FIRED 18,930 TIMES

Artilleryman Keeps Count on French 3-Incher to Test Longevity.

PARIS, June 22.—The number of shots that can be fired from one of the French three-inch guns before it is worn out has, in at least one instance, been found to be as high as 18,930, according to the actual count kept by a young artilleryman who has sent those figures in from the front. While the three-inch was known to be a robust cannon, the theoretical estimate before the war was that a thousand shots would probably be the limit of its efficiency.

BULLET HITS WOMAN'S MIRROR

Man Arrested After Shot Is Fired Into Hotel Room.

Mrs. Elizabeth Eaton had just finished making her toilet at a dresser in her room at the La Salle Hotel, 508 Chestnut street, yesterday afternoon, when a bullet fired from the Laclede Hotel, next door, buried itself in the mirror before which she had stood. She fainted.

After an investigation the police last night arrested J. L. Thomas, a traveling salesman, stopping at the Laclede. They were informed that Thomas had remarked in the lobby of the hotel that he was "going to get those pigeons" that Mrs. Eaton had been feeding at her window. A revolver which appeared to have been recently discharged was found in his room. He denied firing the shot.

That Offers You Dresses Regularly Valued Up to $16.75; for $9.85

YOU'VE heard the old saying about the ill wind—here's an example of the idea as it works out in your favor. These new Frocks just came from a maker who was holding them for his Summer orders; but the backward season failed to bring forth the desired orders and he had the Dresses left on his hands.

All new, remember—and the very dresses that the Summer days will demand. Choose them tomorrow at $9.85. Third Floor

GLEN ECHO "INS" HOLE OUT, CLUB TO BE THE RIDGEDALE

Name Changed After "Outs" Were Stripped on Legal Links and All Are Satisfied to a "Tee."
Having successfully stripped the Glen Echo Club "outs" on the legal links, the "ins" haven't a lookin' in the hole when they met in close proximity to the nineteenth hole and changed the name of the organization to the Ridgedale Country Club.

The new name suits the "ins" to a tee, and as the courts have decided that the "outs" haven't a lookin' in the hole in the club is satisfied with the change, including Col. Bogey.

The number of trustees was increased to nine, the added member being William S. Nixon. The others are Albert Bond Lambert, H. M. Piager, John C. Roberts, S. T. G. Smith, C. D. Johnson, H. L. Parker, F. E. Nulsen and E. A. Faust. There are 65 members in the new club and it is the intention to increase this number to about 200. The initiation fee is $400 and the annual dues are $200.

PEACE UNION ASKS WILSON TO WITHDRAW THE TROOPS

American Organization Against Militarism Wants U. S. to Evacuate Mexico as Soon as Possible
NEW YORK, June 22.—President Wilson is asked to withdraw the American troops from Mexico at the earliest possible moment in a resolution adopted by the American Union Against Militarism.

The memorial, which was telegraphed to the President, was signed by Oswald Garrison Villard, Amos Pinchot, Dr. Sidney Gulick and others. "The continued presence of the military," the resolution says in part, "is a provocation to the Mexican people and makes it increasingly difficult for the de facto Government to control the situation."

BIGGEST SAFE AND SANE 4TH IS BEING PLANNED

Patriotic Pageant From Downtown to Forest Park, Speeches and Fireworks.

BIG DISPLAY AT NIGHT
Celebration Will Cost $10,000, and Expense Is Borne by Private Subscription.

St. Louis this year is planning the biggest Safe and Sane Fourth of July in its history. There will be a patriotic pageant during the morning, a picnic, speeches and fireworks in the afternoon in Forest Park, and a fireworks spectacle, showing modern warfare in many of its phases, in the evening.

Probate Judge Holtcamp, president of the National's Birthday Association, in charge of arrangements, said that the cost of the celebration will be about $10,000. This sum, he said, has been contributed by business men.

Every man, woman and child in the city will be welcome to march in the line that will follow the 63 decorated floats in the patriotic pageant. This parade will start from Twelfth and Locust streets at 10 a. m., the route being west on Locust, through the Lindell cut-off, out Lindell boulevard to Skinker road, and thence southeast through Forest Park to the foot of Art Hill, where the celebration of the afternoon and evening will be held.

The title of the first float will be "The First Americans," depicting Indians. "The Goddess of Liberty" will be the second float. The Goddess and 13 girls, representing the Thirteen Colonies, will be attired in white, with an American flag draped over their left shoulders and each carrying a flag. Miss Lora Antonette Reiter of Chicago, a cornet soloist, will be a herald preceding this float.

Floats Representing States.
Then will follow 48 floats, representing the states in the Union. Following this "United States" will be shown, extending hospitality to the nation's children at war. The familiar picture of the signing of the Declaration of Independence will be presented on another float. Then, on separate floats, will be men dressed to look like George Washington, Abraham Lincoln, Thomas Jefferson and Nathan Hale. Titles of other floats will be "The War of 1812," "The Boston Tea Party" and "Washington at Valley Forge."

When the pageant reaches Art Hill the girls representing the 48 states will be grouped around the Goddess of Liberty, and a salute of 21 guns will be fired. A picnic and band concert will follow. At 4 p. m. patriotic speeches will be made. An invitation was sent to President Wilson to come to St. Louis to speak, but he previously had accepted an invitation elsewhere.

Efforts are being made to have him send a representative to St. Louis to speak in his stead. Charles E. Hughes, Republican nominee for President, has been asked to speak but a reply from him has not been received. Other speakers of national reputation are to be invited.

The evening display of fireworks, which will be under the supervision of the Palm Fireworks Co., will be without charge. Applications of persons wishing to participate in the pageant by taking parts of the floats, or by other means, are being received at the headquarters of the National's Birthday Association, in the Pierce Building.

Beard Interferes With Gas Masks, Authorities Discover.
PARIS, June 22.—The magnificent crop of beards which has won for the French soldiers the world-wide sobriquet "pollux" or "hairy ones," seems destined to disappear.
An order has been given to many of the units at the front to shave off the whiskers for the reason that the gas masks, with which every soldier is now supplied, fit best on a smooth face.

Today's Beauty Hints

It is not necessary to shampoo quite so frequently if your hair is properly cleaned each time by use of a really good shampoo. The easiest to use and quickest drying shampoo that we can recommend to our readers may be prepared very cheaply by dissolving a teaspoonful of cantharox, obtained from your druggist, in a cup of hot water. This rubbed into the scalp creates a thick lather, soothing and cooling in its action, as well as beneficial to scalp and hair. After rinsing the scalp is fresh and clean, while the hair dries quickly and evenly, developing a bright luster and a soft fluffiness that makes it seem very heavy.—ADV.

THE POST-DISPATCH PLATFORM.

I know that my retirement will make no difference in its cardinal principles, that it will always fight for progress and reform, never tolerate injustice or corruption, always fight demagogues of all parties, never belong to any party, always oppose privileged classes and public plunderers, never lack sympathy with the poor, always remain devoted to the public welfare, never be satisfied with merely printing news, always be drastically independent, never be afraid to attack wrong, whether by predatory plutocracy or predatory poverty.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE

Convention Reception Committee's Good Work.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch:
The love feast over and our guests departed with light hearts and pleasant memories, let us at least offer thanks to those to whom more than unstinted praise and honor are due. In retrospect let us recall to view the smiling face and pleasing form of that gallant gentleman and splendid, energetic citizen, Mr. James E. Smith, chairman of the Reception Committee, who was always on the job here, there and everywhere with a loyal welcoming spirit of enthusiastic hospitality coining out of every pore of his smiling face and his ready tongue.

His resourceful, untiring and unselfish leadership aided and abetted by his voluntary and enthusiastic co-workers of the Reception Committee were our biggest asset in the establishing for St. Louis a universal reputation for genuine unselfish hospitality throughout the length and breadth of our broad land incomparable and more enviable than that of famed San Francisco.

The seeds of fond remembrance, love, friendship and pleasure carried away by our departed visitors can not be measured in coin of the realm, but will grow in appreciation and reciprocity a thousand fold as the years roll by. The beautiful, beautiful homes, broad avenues, splendid boulevards and the many hospitable receptions and courtesies accorded our visitors by our more than generous citizens has left a most favorable, lasting impression in their hearts.

Mr. James E. Smith and his committee by their unselfish example deserve and will merit the applause and thanks of the citizens of St. Louis for their untiring energy, and as the path of unselfish labor leads to love, may their tribe never grow less, but live, love and prosper to the credit and honor and the glory of good old, but new, beautiful and progressive St. Louis.

Meat Shortage.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch:
The average workingman (who can hardly swing along) says meat is high—not because of the packers—but owing to its scarcity. But with millions of acres of unused land there is no reason why (if we had constructive legislation at Washington) there should be a meat shortage.

SIDNEY AVERILL.

Publicity for the Armenian Sufferers.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch:
We beg to extend to you in behalf of the Armenian Auxiliary Relief Association of St. Louis our most grateful feelings for the illustrated article entitled "Bleeding Out World's Oldest Christian Nation," which was published in the Magazine Section of the last Sunday's issue of the Post-Dispatch.

You are among the many philanthropic editors of the United States who have boldly stood for the down-trodden Armenians and have done their best to relieve their oppression. It is a great consolation for us, who survive the massacred million Armenians, to find in this world over against the unpeppery Turk philanthropist such as you, whose heart is wrung with pity for the poor Armenians.

ARMENIAN AUXILIARY RELIEF COMMITTEE.
THOMAS M. GAROIAN, Chairman.
K. T. NUSHAH, Secretary.

Care of Absent Soldiers' Families.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch:
St. Louis should immediately organize a society for the purpose of looking after the families of our citizens who have answered the call of the American Government. This society should see that the absent soldier should not have a cause to worry over the condition of his family. Such a society could render an invaluable aid in a multitude of ways by assisting the families to provide against want and suffering, besides performing many other acts of service which will be required.

This society, besides having individual members, should also have member societies and companies. These member societies and companies would be societies and commercial companies who would join in a body. Such a central organization with the majority of St. Louis behind it would be able to well and efficiently perform the duties outlined.

A hearty co-operation along these lines would enable the community to perform a service which we owe to those who are giving their best to their country.

E. L. COOLIDGE.

Mobilization.

From the Christian News and Courier.
It has taken 15 times as long to mobilize the men of the border national guard as it took to mobilize the first 3,500 men of the German army.

OUR INEVITABLE TASK.

The apparent hopelessness of peace with Mexico does not lie so much in Carranza's attitude as in conditions across the border. Carranza did his worst when he refused to co-operate with American troops to put down banditry and protect American lives and property on both sides of the boundary; and when he incited suspicion and hostility on the part of Mexicans towards the United States. His best cannot undo this folly.

Carranza is probably powerless to stop the movement he started. His change of attitude might retard, but could hardly avert, the inevitable result. No matter what he did, conditions would remain the same and our duty to suppress crime and anarchy would remain. The reports of clashes are to be expected and at any moment war may be opened by Mexican troops or the disorganized forces that the de facto Government has been assembling, arming and inciting against the United States.

We have laid our hand to the plow in Mexico and must finish the furrow. We have undertaken the work after long forbearance and it must be completed. We should do it patiently, devotedly and generously. It is a pathetic struggle, in which a distracted people, the victims of ambitious and greedy leaders, are forced into a hopeless conflict. We can only prove our high purpose by bringing order out of chaos and trying to place the feet of the Mexican people in the path of peace and progress.

Surely in this difficult task the American people should be a unit. All parties and elements should rally to the support of the Government in work which has been forced upon us and which can be accomplished thoroughly only by harmonious effort. Partisanship exceeds the limit of decency when the political opponents of President Wilson, who denounced his patient forbearance and "watchful waiting," now assault him for undertaking the task to which they have been trying to drive him.

The only alternative to the President's policy was intervention. When the President is compelled to accept the alternative by the pressure of unavoidable events, surely the time has come for the substitution of patriotic support for partisan criticism.

The home has not been abolished in any State where woman has been given the right to vote.

THE EXPIRING BULL MOOSE.

The Kansas Progressives have thrown up the sponge. They have decided to raise no staying hand when the hat, which this time had a string to it, is jerked out of the ring. The Republican elephant, the only specimen of his species belonging to the carnivora, will pick the bones of the bull moose on the Kansas plains.

William Allen White, national committeeman of the Progressive party, and U. S. Sartin, its State chairman, have held a conference and directed that the Bull Moose electoral ticket shall be withdrawn from the official ballot. They will try to throw the Progressive strength of the State to Hughes. Without an electoral ticket there will be no chance even to vote for Parker of Louisiana, the Colonel's new running mate.

If Kansas decides that the battle for social justice was only a sham battle, that the tremendous din and uproar of Armageddon were caused by blank cartridges, what can the Christian soldiers of other states do? We seem to have a forecast of the Progressive National Committee's action when it meets at Chicago next Monday.

All States for America.

AN APPEAL THAT MUST BE HEEDED.
While public generosity is expected, in aid of women and children left with little or no means by breadwinners called to the service of the country, the Provident Association makes an urgent appeal for no less than 4000 widows, orphans and deserted wives and children, dependent upon it during the summer months.

It is appalling to know that so many women and children in the city are practically destitute through no fault of their own. The number would not be so great if Missouri had an effective law to deal with lousy or recalcitrant husbands and fathers.

This appeal cannot go unheeded. The amount needed to keep these women and children from starvation is only $14,000, a small sum for a city as wealthy and populous as St. Louis. It would, as Manager Hubbard says, be a disgrace to St. Louis to allow these unfortunate people to suffer.

CIVIC SPIRIT IN TWO CITIES.

After a campaign of instruction perhaps unexampled in organized effort for preparing an urban population for voting, Cleveland recently took a referendum vote on a $2,500,000 bond issue for the construction of a municipal convention hall.

The result is given in an informative article by Charles S. Huff in the Star, as 35,020 "aye" votes and 10,013 "nay" votes, or a total of 45,033. St. Louis, in the first special election on bonds for completing the bridge, for which a two-third majority was required, cast 31,620 affirmative and 26,823 negative votes, a total of 58,443, on Nov. 9, 1911. At the second special bridge election, held Aug. 5, 1913, St. Louis cast 43,025 affirmative and 24,443 negative votes, a total of 67,468. At the third bridge election, on Nov. 5, 1915, 53,891 affirmative and 49,953 negative votes were cast, a total of 103,844. At the fourth bridge election, Nov. 16, 1914, in which the bond proposal was finally carried, the affirmative votes were 39,240 and the negative 13,148, a total of 52,388.

At the referendum on the new St. Louis charter, June 30, 1914, the affirmative vote was 46,839 and the negative 44,158, a total of 90,997.

The smallest number of St. Louisians who turned out at the polls at any recent election comparable with this Cleveland vote on Convention Hall bonds was 20 per cent greater than the number who turned out five years later in Cleveland. In other St. Louis expressions on municipal betterments, the number was 50 per cent greater, almost exactly twice as great and nearly two and one-half times as great.

Perhaps that fine civic spirit in Cleveland which is so highly eulogized is, after all, admirable only in a relative sense and would be found on analysis really inferior to St. Louis. Or, perhaps, when we credit Cleveland with phenomenal advance in total population, we are only assigning her a rank which for a long time will be hopelessly subordinated to St. Louis.

USES FOR RETIRED OFFICERS.

The offer of retired army officers to train the local Officers' Reserve Corps suggests a way to meet the problem of supplying officers for training camps. It is announced that on account of the need of officers for army duty in Mexico, the Government cannot supply the camps. Camp Benjamin Harrison, in Indiana, the only midwest camp, has been abandoned.

Many retired army officers are capable, physically and mentally, of good work. They are peculiarly well fitted to instruct and drill recruits and are subject to call by the Government. These army officers can be utilized not alone for training purposes, but for many duties in connection with the army. While they may not be sent into the field of action, they can do excellent work in army organization places now filled by younger and more active men. Why waste so much excellent material?

CUBA IN THE NEUTRALITY ROLE.

Bound by ties of gratitude with the United States and by ties of race and language with Mexico, Cuba announces that it will maintain a strict neutrality should war come between this country and Carranza's partisans.

Mexico has negligible naval strength and only a small merchant marine. Accordingly Cuba need have no fears that her citizens lawfully on neutral liners will be slaughtered in submarine attack. Probably she will not incur great provocation through the opening of her mail bags in transit on the high seas nor suffer heavy losses in the holding up of her ocean commerce.

But will the citizens of each of the possible belligerents domiciled in her territory associate themselves for unneutral advancement of their respective national interests? Will an American-Cuban vote make promotion of Washington's cause a test of Cuban national policy and a Mexican-Cuban vote make promotion of Mexico City's cause a test of such policy and will both threaten political reprisals? Will Cuban industries be endangered by bomb plots?

Perhaps Cuba does not know it, but she is mapping out a most difficult and thankless role for herself in proclaiming a faultless neutrality.

SENATORS AND SOLDIERS.

U. S. Senator Wadsworth resigns his lieutenantcy in the New York militia with the explanation that he would be of more service in the Senate than in the field.

That is "right smart of a question," as John Sharp Williams might say. It is difficult to say just how useful the Senator would be in the field. But, without invidiousness, it is certain that it would be a great help to the Senate if some of its members would go and serve in the field, and in this sense a patriotic service to the whole people. Even if the Senators were useless in the field.

On the other hand, our special need just now is soldiers and they are harder to get than Senators, which can be recruited by the million any day.

If the sword is in our hand, Mexico herself has placed it there.

"A CONTEST OF HONOR."

Gen. Obregon, addressing some enthusiastic students from President Carranza's balcony, defines a pretty notion of war. "In all contests of honor"—whatever they may be—"the contestants first take the measure of their arms in order that they may be able to fight on equal terms," says he. "If the United States desires to defend its honor unquestionably it should take the same number of men as we have, and equally armed, and fight on fields selected by mutual consent." This is an appeal to our sporting blood.

From our balcony we will accept Gen. Obregon's challenge. We should even reduce the fight to simpler terms, of perfect equality. Why not a given number of one man on each side? And why arms at all—that is to say firearms? Has the General anybody on his side that he would like to match up against Jess Willard, for example? Or, if he prefers shooting' irons and knives, we suggest that he send Villa up against old Peg-leg Buck Montgomery of Ocasomonga County, or Bone Jack of Bowie.

We have a sneaking notion that Gen. Obregon is merely talking from a balcony. Way down deep in his heart he probably knows that the individual fighting gringo can lick his weight in wildcats and several times his weight in greasers.

TWIXT LOVE AND DUTY.

When duty calls, George Roth, Constable, responds at 40 miles an hour, forgetful of his promise to his wife and regardless of the safety of the Roth family.

Roth is speedier-catcher for two St. Louis County townships. When he asked Mrs. Roth to take a ride with him in his flivver Sunday evening she made him promise that he would not chase any speeders. As a sort of hostage she took along their three-year-old. George's brother, Joe, and Joe's wife, Clara, went too. It looked like there was enough family influence along to hold Constable George to his promise.

Roth kept his promise until he spied a speeder. When a big black car shot past him at 50 miles an hour, solemn promise had to give way to ruling passion. Constable Roth took after the speeder. He was going 40 miles an hour, enveloped in the big car's dust, when the flivver went into the ditch, turned a somersault and spilled Roth and his folks in a soft clover field.

Roll call revealed that all the Roths had survived. For that no especial credit is due the Constable. Providence and the clover field seem to have taken care of them. As a keeper of promises and as a safe driver for the wife and George Jr. and Brother Joe and Joe's wife, Clara, Constable George proved a failure, but he "seen his duty and done it noble," even if he didn't catch the speeder. St. Louis policemen might do worse than emulate George Roth, Constable

SOCRATES ON HUGHES.

I WAS over at the agora last night, as I always am on Wednesday night, and there was a feeling that I ought to say something about Hughes. Some of those present thought justice had not been entirely done that gentleman, and everybody seemed to think it would be a good idea for me to explain just what his relation to the campaign is. I was glad to do that for two reasons: First, because nothing is to be gained by being unfair to Hughes; and, second, because, in my opinion, we have too good a cause against him to prejudice it with a bad one. I, therefore, went to the platform, and as nearly as I can repeat myself, I said this:

Justice Hughes is, first of all, a very excellent and high-minded man. He was quite within his rights and the proprieties in becoming a candidate, and his whiskers are not an issue in the campaign. (For the discomfort of those who insist upon making his whiskers the issue, I wish to say that he might at any time shave them off, leaving that part of his enemies' issues.) Nobody doubts his ability. Nobody doubts his Americanism. Nobody doubts his complete freedom. I am against him because he has become the instrument with which evil and unpatriotic interests hope to revenge themselves upon Wilson for having done right. It is not the fault of Hughes that the political support of those interests is thrown to him. He may be unsympathetic with them. But we nevertheless cannot afford to let them triumph through him over the country's insistence that we shall have but one flag. We hear it said that this is unfair to Hughes. Why is it unfair? Does the fact that he is the candidate of the element out for revenge upon Wilson for holding the Kaiser to international law remain after we have done him entire justice, or does it not? It does remain. It is a fact. Nobody denies it. The George Sylvester Vierechs and the Dr. Hexamers all exultantly boast that it is so. The Justice can easily rid himself of that evil incubus, and run for office on his own record instead of that of the hypocrites who have sought to embarrass the Government in its international relations, by simply saying that he does not care to be made the instrument of their revenge. He can put himself right before all the people who do not approve of that sort of thing by refusing to be the figurehead of any such dangerous precedent in American politics. If he doesn't do that, he cannot complain of being judged in the shadow of that kind of support. He will be the worst licked man picked up on the political battlefield since they went out with an ambulance truck after Taft. I asked if anyone present cared to say that Hughes is not the candidate of the Potsdamers in this country, but no one cared to be that absurd. He is, and it is perfectly fair to him to say so.

It is not we who are unfair to him. He is unfair to himself. If the Potsdamers can turn Wilson out for compelling the Kaiser to keep within the bounds of international law with his submarines, then any national group in this country can turn a President out for daring to hold its fatherland to the mark. We shall have such a tangled skein of bonds with the Old World that we will never get it straightened out.

That was all I said, and it seemed enough. A few people here and there in the house looked a little uncomfortable, but like Hughes himself, they had nothing to say.

Business is business in Chicago, apparently. During convention week I saw a man who had bought some smoking tobacco stop at the counter to roll a cigarette.

"Get out of here!" roared the proprietor. "You got what you wanted, and we need that room at the counter!"

That is not the way business is done in Elgin or wherever the man lives, and he looked up thoroughly startled. However, he fell back, the crowd enveloped him, and business in Chicago went right on.

A Kansas City woman advertised for a washwoman, and a huge colored lady, very black and very far from the accepted standards of feminine beauty, came around.

"What is your name?" the housewife asked. "Edith Russell, ma'am," answered the leviathan of the laundry, as soberly as if there were nothing funny about it.

Now that the zoo people are falling out among themselves, maybe some of them will take the bus which the Art League put in Forest Park over the zoo's head and go over to the Art Museum. They will find the exhibit a little tame at first, but after reasonable acquaintance it gains on the elephant and the orang-utang with such rapidity that one's dolor is brief.

Company I of Oyster Bay hasn't mobilized yet. Maybe the Colonel is really out of politics for good.

FORGETFULNESS.

WHAT can hold the Present, Past or Future
To present my spirit, bringing my heart,
Aunder torn by doubt, errant pain
Rending my wild being all apart?

The present is a mimic spot, unsettled,
Where the blind gropes in the darkness for light,
And I, among the derelicts of Thought!
Am tumbling, lost forever from Friend's sight.
The Past, a little, blue-eyed maiden
Of God's dreams, has closed her azure eyes,
And light has sunk in Darkness, terrible,
And stars hide in the Blackness of the skies.

The future—what a veiled Happyland,
Upon the edge of pulsing hearts unseen,
Holds shrouded images in Make-Believe
And terror-stricken creatures' Night-Have-Been!
Heart-hiding, veils, to find a friend is gone,
And Naked Self out of the storm is hurled
To the hot sun, all bleeding and forlorn!

BEAUTY CULTURE.
J. M.—Carbolated vasoline always yielding to applications of olive oil, followed a few hours later with a shower of water, in which a well-beaten egg is dissolved. Rinse in tepid water.
GRACE.—Green soap is a German liquid preparation. It does not darken any shade of hair, in applying it is first shaken up with a little water, and applied to the hair already wet all over head. Thick, soft lather is produced, which cures sore scalp and cleans thoroughly.

CLEANSING.
MRS. E. S.—First wash stain: Try rubbing in yellow patrum jelly.
ESTHER.—Coal oil stain: Cover with oatmeal, cornmeal or buckwheat flour; leave two days, then brush and beat well.

HOUSEHOLD HELPS.
MRS. V.—Corn is regarded by many as an unlucky vegetable for cooking. But if picked while very tender, cut from the cob at once with a keen knife that leaves no ragged kernels, packed tightly into the jars, which are then filled with water and cooked by steam, there should be no difficulty. Another way is to take extra large ears of corn, cut off the size, and can the corn on the cob. To do this it is necessary to select very tender ears of a small variety. They should be subjected to the blanching process for an hour and a half on each of three days. The result will be a platter of corn on the cob on your table in the midst of the usual in appearance and flavor to that of summer.—Country Gentleman.

SUBSCRIBER.—The earnings of all married persons and children who must provide for the entire support of a family in the State of Wisconsin, for three months next preceding the date of any process, not exceeding $50 per month, are exempt.

CARROLL.—Unless agreeable to you to let partnership stand, same should be dissolved according to contract entered into, or liability of partnership will remain. If facts stated are correct, neither could patent the articles, under the circumstances, without benefit to the other, even though you dissolve the partnership in question.

S. D.—On your $75 chattel mortgage $6 per cent per month interest is allowable and if over that has been charged it voids the mortgage. The statute does not permit 1 per cent per month interest in your case as attorney's claims; it merely states that if over 1 per cent is charged it voids mortgage and if over 2 per cent is charged it makes it a crime.

E. F. J.—Wagon have preference to an amount not exceeding $100 for work performed within 6 months preceding receipt of trustees' or Sworn statement to be presented, stating amount due, kind of work, and when performed, to officers of son or court charged with such property, within 10 days after seizure, or within 30 days after being released, in hands of any receiver or trustee.

H. G.—All plate and paper companies that manufacture and supply furnish booklets on the handling of their products and the necessary information. These can be had for the asking, and, if studied diligently, will help you out of your troubles.

CLEMENS.—In case of marine disaster desiring to return to the States, it would be necessary to know how long it has been since the disaster, why he deserted, and if desertion was the only charge. Under existing regulations, a man who has deserted against his will (only one specification on the charge) who voluntarily surrenders, and is in all probability to be tried by a general court-martial, sentenced to six months confinement in naval prison, and in the course of a month or so would be restored to duty on full pay for one year. In some cases (where desertion was the only charge, and no very extensive military record) the deserter has been sentenced to a detention camp (not confined, but under strict military discipline) for the course of a month or so and has been restored to duty on full pay, and a deserter is apprehended and returned to the service he deserted, all expenses are charged to him, and a road fare (also fare for guard who returns him) is station from which he is sent to the States. In fact everything in the way of expenses, even to including any transportation that may be required, is paid by the Government. This has a great deal of bearing on the trial, as the Government has paid in securing his apprehension, and in returning him to the service, and the sentence is greater than if the man voluntarily surrendered.

The Golden Hope

Story of how an apparently worthless mine yielded $50,000 from dross thrown away by former careless workmen.

By George Elmer Cobb.

"WHERE did you get me?" "Outside of the Dew Drop, tossing your money to a crowd of loafers and bragging that you had come back to Oreville to show people how to mine."

"That's me!" observed Rufe Glidden, sitting up in bed and staring curiously about the dainty orderly room he was in. "And you took me in, the Good Samaritan, eh?" "I was sorry for you, Rufe, and I didn't forget that you gave me my grub-stake five years ago, when you left Oreville."

"Forget that!" "I never have. The claim, low grade as it is, has enabled me to send a living back to the family in the East, and when my wife died I brought my daughter and the little ones out here. I've saved $2000. When I double that, I'm going back to the old home town, buy a modest little business and educate the kids. Breakfast is ready."

"I've not got much appetite," said Rufe, and he looked around as he said it. Then, left to himself, he got up and dressed. His first move was to search his coat. Yes, there was a flask "for the morning ewig." He regarded the flask with gloating. Then his eye chanced to rest upon the bureau cover. A dozen dainty female toilet accessories showed. A delicately embroidered sachet sent out a sweet perfume. Beyond the closet door a light, pretty dress showed. The man observed. An odor of sanctity seemed to appeal to his manliness.

"His daughter's room," he muttered. "he gave it up to me! Bah! they ought to have stowed me in some dog kennel. Through!"

Signing of the Pledge.

He gave the liquor flask a violent fling through the open window. He watched it shatter to pieces on the ground. Then he went downstairs. John Ward was reading a newspaper. "See here, old friend, give me a scrap of paper and a pencil, will you?" "After breakfast, yes."

"No, now," insisted Rufe, peremptorily. His hand was shaking, as the articles provided, he dashed off a rapid scrawl.

"There," he said, signing his name to the pledge—"the first I ever gave, and the last, for it shall last for all time. Two witnesses, you and—"

"My daughter, Mr. Glidden," interrupted Ward, courteously and gravely.

as a charming young girl entered the room. "Rose, you have heard me speak of my best friend."

"Many a time, father," was the earnest reply, and the glance of her grateful welcoming eyes sent a thrill through the object of her interest, and as well made him shudder.

"He is a good friend to everybody but himself," pursued Ward—"aren't you, Rufe?" he challenged lightly. "Going to mend in that, though, daughter, and here is a little document he wants you to witness with me."

"Yes," burst forth Rufe irrepressibly, as the girl signed her name, "and if only out of respect to you, I swear never to break this pledge!"

"You are a good man," she said, simply and sweetly.

Rufe was charmed with the comfort and welcoming atmosphere of the little home. It was not until noon that he left its peaceful, soothing influence.

When he left the house he traced mingled anxiety and tenderness in the tones of Rose, as she said:

"You have quite captivated the two children. They will be expecting you home early to tell them some more of those exciting stories of yours, Mr. Glidden."

"I certainly shall not disappoint them," assented Rufe, and his heart beat fast at the underlying token of genuine interest on the part of a true woman.

A Loan of $1000.

SURE enough, long before dark he came down the road from the town. His eyes were bright, his step elastic. He seemed like one buoyed up by some new energy and interest in life.

"My old friends had programmed a sort of reception for me in the town," reported Rufe, after a pleasant evening with the little ones, "but I shut them off on the happy water end of it. Now then, friends—for you are that—I've got some business to talk over with you. I was a good deal surprised when I got inquiring around to find that the Golden Hope mine had petered out."

"Yes, two years ago," nodded Ward. "The vein ran short—not until they had taken out a little fortune, though."

"So I hear," said Rufe, "and I found the runway going to ruin and the stamp mill rusted and broken. Do you know that the old owner of the mine offered it to me for a thousand dollars?"

"So I hear," said Rufe, "and I found the runway going to ruin and the stamp mill rusted and broken. Do you know that the old owner of the mine offered it to me for a thousand dollars?"

"I know it's gone begging, and no one would touch it at any figure," remarked Ward. "Well, I'm going to buy it," announced Rufe. "Don't think I've gone out of my senses," he added. "Will you stake me?" "You mean, will I loan you a thousand dollars?" "Just that."

"Rose, bring my bank book," directed

Ward, without a moment's hesitation. "Not so fast, old partner!" interrupted Rufe. "The money will do tomorrow. I want you to help me—will you do it?" "You mean work with you?" "Yes."

"Rufe, old friend," spoke Ward. "I wouldn't give 5 cents for the Golden Hope. You're buying it for a thousand dollars. I never knew you to make a mis

THE Golden Hope mine was located out of the traversed trails. For a solid month every day, quietly and keeping their own counsel, Rufe and Ward visited the abandoned diggings. Every day Rose brought them their dinner. What a new glorious life—what a mighty thrilling secret those three talked over, worked over, dreamed over! And every new day two ardent hearts understood one another better and bet ter. At the end of the week Rufe Glidden drove out of town with a hired wagon and two horses. He returned with a cover over the heaped-up wagon box, in front of the assay office. A crowd gathered. The rumor spread like wildfire that Rufe Glidden had found a giant pocket of pure gold at the old mine.

"It's gold, boys," he admitted buoyantly, "but it came from no pocket. Why, you stupid gals! It's been lying before your eyes in the clear open ever since the Golden Hope closed down."

And then he explained: "You see, the careless old workers let grease drop onto the quicksilver plate, and the corrugations let about as much gold slip into the tailings as they really got. We've simply worked the dump—and panned it, panned by pound. If we don't get a clear $50,000 out of the clean-up, I'm a tenderfoot!"

He was a tender lover to Rose, and that was all of his life, and he went back to the States her proud, loyal husband.

"The treasure was found in the Golden Hope," explained John Ward, when he showed his new neighbors a minted bar of the products of the tailings of the abandoned mine.

"The treasure worth more than all the wealth the Golden Hope ever held!" added Rufe Glidden, his arm encircling his contented Rose.

How Weapons Began

Savages' Weapons.

THE various groups of red, black and tan-colored individuals who inhabit the remote corners of this scrappy world have been cut off from civilization and forced to get along without the blessings and refinements, such as poisonous gas and machine guns. Yet, in their own rude, untutored way, they have produced a number of battle-murder-and-sudden-death implements which get results.

Take the boomerang, used by the black fellows, the ratly Australians. These blacks do not shine intellectually; in fact, they're at the bottom of the list, and would take all the booby prizes in a brain contest; but they have a remarkable weapon that does good work. They can make a throw of 100 yards and have the stick come back—it's from three to four feet long—while it's possible to strike an adversary at 180 yards with the non-return stick. The old Egyptians probably used the boomerang; the natives of Northeast Africa have something like it of metal and our own Hopis of Arizona use a no-come-back affair of similar design.

The bolas of the Indians in the far end of South America are a combination of two or three balls joined with rawhide strips. One short, broad-pointed ball about one's head and then gives it a fling. It hits the running mark, wraps itself tightly about it, and there you are. Whatever you're shooting at is tied hard and fast.

THE Zulus made a lot of native history in Southern Africa with the assegai, their short, broad-pointed spear, that was as deadly as a stabbing weapon at close quarters. They conquered a big strip of country and nothing stopped them until they ran foul of the Boers, who had guns and knew how to use 'em.

The "puuma" used by the Maquis Indians of Guiana (South America) seems to be the best of blowguns. It's 11 feet long, has an inner and outer tube and a sight and shoots a palm leaf-rib arrow from 12 to 18 inches long. It is useful for bushwhacking.

as there is no noise, and a good marksman can hit the bull's-eye at 50 to 60 yards. It doesn't really matter where it hits one, the arrows are poisoned. They even put an attachment on that makes them rotate with a rifle motion. The "sumptan" of the Dyaks, in Borneo, is a shorter blowgun with a spearhead attached and can be used as a bayonet with arrows poisoned.

THE Dyaks are really a good natured people, but they worship skulls and have to bring in a few to get a reputation. No girl who cares what people say will look at a fellow who hasn't some skulls to show for his work.

His majesty, George V., has the worst crew of all on his hands—the Wild Was along the border of Upper Burma. They believe the spirit of a departed warrior remains with his head and that an avenue of stakes, each holding up a skull, makes a guard against evil beings.

The smaller stalks of rhubarb are much less tart than the large ones. Pimentoes mixed with finely chopped celery make a good sandwich.

Fast adhesive tape over the holes in overcoats, raincoats and umbrellas. A cool and tasty summer dish is cold slaw served in green pepper shells.

Recipes Worth Trying

Braised Beef Heart—Wash well in cold water one beef's heart. Carefully remove all the clots from the tip. Cut out the tubes from the top. Fill the heart with vinegar and set aside over night. Next morning put 2 cups of bread crumbs into a bowl, add a tablespoon of chopped parsley, salt, pepper, 2 tablespoons of chopped celery, and 2 tablespoons of melted butter, mix. Rinse the heart, wipe dry, then put in stuffing. With a single stitch, fasten together the top and stand top down in a sauce pan; partly cover with water, add a bay leaf and a slice of onion. Cover the pan and simmer for an hour. Then put in a pan and bake, basting often with melted butter. Serve with brown sauce.

Potato Griddle Cakes—Four raw potatoes grated, 2 eggs, yolk and white beaten separately, ½ teaspoon of salt, ½ teaspoon of pepper. Flour enough to hold together, about 1 tablespoon, fry in hot butter.

Hot Flake Wafers—Cream ¼ cup shortening and 1 cup sugar together; add 2 cups rolled oats, ½ cup boiling water in which dissolve 1 teaspoon soda, 1 cup flour, 1 teaspoon salt; add flour to roll, cut in squares, sprinkle with sugar and bake in quick oven. Watch carefully, as they burn quickly.

GERMANY CANNOT WIN WAR, SWEDISH TRADE PAPER SAYS

Declares Food Question Is More Serious Than Is Realized;
Vegetable Shortage Vital.

STOCKHOLM, June 22.—The Swedish trade journal Affarsvarlden, representing the best business interests in Sweden, prints a remarkable editorial commenting on the war, in which it says it is time for the Swedes to realize that the outcome cannot be favorable to the Central Powers.

The food question, says the newspaper, will decide the war, and it declares that the bad situation in Germany is responsible for the "reckless offensive at Verdun and the recent attempt to win a naval battle."

Some Things Germany Lacks.
"The food situation in Germany is bad," the article says, "and much worse than the Swedish people generally think.
Swedish conceptions as to how peace will be concluded have not taken sufficiently into consideration the importance of the campaign of starvation against Germany."

The central Powers cannot obtain a peace advantageous to them. It is said in a long German article regarding the central disposition of food that the butchers are unable to supply more than one-third the normal quota and that Germany in the very near future must feed her people chiefly on vegetables.
Even if it is possible to train the population to a vegetable diet, this cannot be done unless there is plenty of bread, butter and eggs, turnips and such other vegetables, but none of these, not even potatoes, can be had in the quantities the people require them. Especially there seems to be a lack of bread, beans, peas, butter, eggs, rice, oats and all the nourishing vegetables. As a matter of fact, there is greater lack of these than of meat.

"According to an article, in the Berlin Boursen Courier, a large number of housewives in cities cannot get sufficient food for their families and consequently central kitchens are the last resort. It is obvious that such a state of affairs cannot go on, year after year."

"Reason for Reckless Offensive."
"It is in this condition that we have the nearest reason for the reckless offensive at Verdun and the main attempt of an offensive at sea. It may seem out of place to discuss these things in a business paper, but the subject is one of the decisive issues of the war and all business speculation must adapt itself to the outcome of the war."

Swedish business interests are generally supposed to be friendly to Germany, as for many years trade with that country has outweighed that of any other, and this article in the representative trade journal warning business men as to the outcome of the war is regarded here with much interest.

TWO SENTENCED FOR SALE OF MILITIA EQUIPMENT

Texas Former Guardsman Disposed of Army Supplies to Mexican Constitutionalists.

AUSTIN, Tex., June 22.—Emmett Walker, former Lieutenant-Colonel and assistant Quartermaster-General of the Texas national guard, and George J.
Head, former Captain of militia yesterday were sentenced to three years and one day in the prison for conspiracy to defraud the Government and embe-zlement of Government property. The charges grew out of the sale to Mexican Constitutionalists of national guard equipment furnished by the War Department.

Walker pleaded guilty in two other cases of embezzlement and received a sentence of one year and one day and $100 fine in each case, but the sentences

he could do to serve his country.

Fletcher answered: "That's all right,
Colonel, but I'll get it yet."
Fletcher went home and spent the entire night drinking water and yesterday morning appeared at the Fourth Regiment Armory. In less than 10

Richard Williams, engineer on the pleased with the benefits he gained through use of Tanlac, the Master Medicine. Mr. Williams recently said:

"For several years I have suffered from stomach trouble. Indigestion bothered me and my stomach usually was in a sour, gaseous condition.
Constipation troubled me. My appetite was very poor. For quite a while I starved myself, fearing the pain should I partake of food. Even the lightest food caused pain in my stomach and an uncomfortable feeling."

such condition that I could eat like I did before my trouble came. I've taken one bottle of Tanlac now and I feel just like I used to feel. I can eat about anything I care for now and I'm gaining weight.

"I want to say that Tanlac has done for me what everything else I tried failed to do. I gladly recom-

Tanlac, the Master Medicine, is especially beneficial for stomach,

TWO INDICTED FOR KIDNAPING HEIRESS FROM LARGE HOTEL

Woman in New York Declares She Was Carried Down Fire Escape 11 Stories.

NEWARK, N. J., June 22.—An emergency session of the grand jury was called last yesterday by Judge Martin to consider the story told by Miss Gertrude Claypool of being kidnaped from New York and brought here, of a hasty exit from a hotel down a fire escape, 11 stories, at night, a fight for valuable papers, and other articles left in the hotel here.

Indictments were returned against Margaret Hill of New York who is alleged to have accompanied Miss Claypool to the hotel here, and Alexander Sidney Rosenthal, a New York lawyer. They are charged with assault by the administration of narcotic drugs.

Heiress Declares She Was Kidnaped From New York Hotel.
NEW YORK, June 22.—Charges that Miss Gertrude Claypool, niece and heir to one-fifth of the $10,000,000 estate left by John W. Bookwalter of Columbus, O., had been drugged, held as a prisoner in a Newark hotel and forced to sign away certain of her rights in the estate, have been laid before District Attorney Edward Swann. The complaint was made by Judge J. M. Sheeps of Columbus, Miss Claypool's attorney, as an outgrowth of a contest over the estate.

According to the charges, Miss Claypool, who is 42 years old, was taken from her hotel here to the office of an attorney by a woman who had administered drugs to her and then induced to sign a revocation of a power of attorney she had given a lawyer and also a revocation of a will.

ARMY FULLY EQUIPPED FOR WAR, A HIGH OFFICER SAYS

Has Large Quantities of Supplies on Hand, and Arrangements Made for Future Needs, He Declares.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., June 22.—A high army officer is authority for the statement that operations in Mexico will not be delayed by the lack of "the elements of war." He declared that factories were in a position to keep supplies coming as fast as needed. He pointed out that the Government had taken the precaution to make large preliminary purchases, as well as to increase the output of its armaments. Vast quantities of ammunition and supplies are already in storage in Mexico and at points near the border. These are considered sufficient to start the regular army and the organized militia in a general campaign, and sources of replenishment of supply are open.

Great Transport Betterment.
The greatest forward step has been made in the transportation department. When Gen. Pershing started his pursuit of Villa March 15, the quartermaster corps did not have a single motor truck; now more than 500 machines are in service.

These trucks are of a heavy build, capable of carrying loads of from one and a half to three tons. All of them are in use along the border and in Mexico, and arrangements have been made with factories for an additional supply. Not only have the trucks been used to carry supplies, but they are employed to move troops when haste is required. Experiments have proven that entire regiments can be moved in trucks much more rapidly than cavalry can operate. Motor transportation also has been extended to other branches of the service within the last three months. Automobile ambulances have been secured, big water tanks for the supply of troops moving through barren regions, and also to the spread of the rebellion in certain to have an important bearing on the war, especially as regards the participation of Turkey. The Post says:

"The uprising is due to recent wholesale executions of Mohammedan and Syrian notables, and well-known religious leaders, and also to the spread in Arabia of a feeling that the Turks have abdicated their position as the protection of the Mohammedans and have become the vassals of Germany." A Reuter dispatch from Cairo says the rebels, in addition to seizing Mecca, have captured Jiddah, the chief seaport of Arabia, and Taif, 65 miles southeast of Mecca, and have proclaimed independence of the Arabs from Ottoman rule.

Provisional Independence.
According to the Reuter dispatch, the Grand Sheriff of Mecca, the Chief Magistrate of the Holy City, proclaimed his independence and was supported by the tribes of the west and central parts of the country. He began operations about June 9 and won signal success.

It is said the garrisons of Mecca, Jiddah and Taif surrendered with the exception of two small forts at Taif, which are still resisting. At Jiddah 45 officers, 1400 men and six guns were captured.

Medina, 248 miles northwest of Mecca, which contains the tomb of Mohammed, is closely besieged and all communications to Hajjar are in the hands of the Grand Sheriff.

MECCA IS SAID TO HAVE BEEN TAKEN BY ARABIAN REBELS

Jiddah and Taif Also Reported Occupied in Uprising Against Turks.

LONDON, June 22.—Reports have been received here that a serious uprising against the Turks is in progress in Arabia, and that the rebels have taken possession of the Holy City of Mecca. The London newspapers declare that the rebellion is certain to have an important bearing on the war, especially as regards the participation of Turkey. The Post says:

"The uprising is due to recent wholesale executions of Mohammedan and Syrian notables, and well-known religious leaders, and also to the spread in Arabia of a feeling that the Turks have abdicated their position as the protection of the Mohammedans and have become the vassals of Germany." A Reuter dispatch from Cairo says the rebels, in addition to seizing Mecca, have captured Jiddah, the chief seaport of Arabia, and Taif, 65 miles southeast of Mecca, and have proclaimed independence of the Arabs from Ottoman rule.

GERMAN WOMEN WHO DRESS MODISHLY ARE DEFENDED

Soldier Writes It Is a Relief to Men on Furlough to See Stylish Gowns at Home.

BERLIN, June 22.—The campaign of the Munich police president, of various Generals commanding home departments, and of 35 women's clubs against women who dress too modishly and conspicuously does not meet undivided approval. Many newspapers have been printing editorials and letters from readers protesting against the effort to modify feminine dress. One of these protestants is an officer of a battery of artillery in France, who writes:

"He who has experienced for himself at the front something of the much discussed 'gravity of the times' does not wish at any price to see all the beauty and joy of life destroyed by an ashen-gray puritanic mood. We think with gratitude of the women whose beauty our soul delighted in during a short rest at home from the burdens of war, and we forbid, with all the straightforwardness of the soldier at the front, that anyone, even in his thoughts, accuse these women of lacking a proper appreciation of the earnestness of war. You should ask the furloughed men, from General down to private, whether they would like to see Germany populated merely with spectacles from those 35 women's clubs."

A verdict of accident was returned at the inquest today into the death of Annie Sprung, 12 years old, daughter of Valentine Sprung, 4050 North Broadway, who was struck by an automobile driven by Leo T. Sheehan of 2229 St. Louis avenue in front of 4047 North Broadway.

Gertrude Hibb of 4053 North Broadway and Bernard Ryan of 4148 North Broadway, who were playing "tag" with Annie, testified that she ran out of a doorway into the street, backward. The automobile, they said, was moving slowly. Mrs. Margaret Ryan confirmed their testimony. Sheehan, who is out on bond, made no statement.

ICE FURNISHED TO 375 FAMILIES FOR BABES THIS YEAR

Demand for Aid From Post-Dispatch Fund Unusually Large for Early Season.

Previously acknowledged $494 49

Total $548 76

While hot weather in an aggravated form has not yet settled upon St. Louis, there is a large demand upon the Post-Dispatch Pure Milk and Free Ice Fund for milk and ice with which to combat the infantile ailments which attend high temperature periods. Soaring mercury is not the only thing, however, that imperils the health and lives of babies and creates the need for aiding mothers of these little ones in the congested districts. Such a condition is almost continuous, but prevails more generally between the time of spring's arrival and the frost season, whatever the temperature variations. This constitutes a period of at least five months in which ice demand is heavy and more or less imperative if the babies are to be given a chance, and the Post-Dispatch Pure Milk and Free Ice Fund is the dependence for this life-saving agency. Pure milk is a continuous necessity.

Since the opening of the season for furnishing free ice Mrs. Melick, who is in active charge of that work for the Post-Dispatch, has made provision for 375 families in which there are babies for whom the article was imperative, and covering only those

Membership Buttons to Be Given to All Pure Milk League Workers

HANDSOME buttons, testifying to their wearers' membership in the Post-Dispatch Pure Milk and Free Ice League, are ready for distribution to all who become league members in the summer of 1916.

They bear the inscription "Post-Dispatch Pure Milk League" and an attractive drawing of the Post-Dispatch Weather Bird in colors and with a bottle of pure milk in its "hand."

Membership in the league is won by helping to save the babies. A membership card also will be given to each person who thus qualifies.

cases where delivery must be by the dealers supplying it. That is an unusually large number for so early in the season, but their existence and actual need are fully determined by personal investigation. When the weather becomes hot and remains so for several days at a time the call for free ice increases rapidly. It is thus clear that the present season is to be one in which a substantial amount of money to meet the cost of this ice will be required.

The comedies and carnival given Tuesday evening by children living along a section of Hartford street added $58 to the babies' fund. That was more than double the sum raised by the same girls and boys for the cause last year, that being $25, and thus met the determined purpose with which they set about their benevolent enterprise this year. About half this sum was raised in advance of the entertainment, through ticket sales, and represented the revenue from the production of two charming comedies. The remainder came through their activities as little merchants in the carnival that followed, in which dainties and novelties were sold. These Hartford street children have thus set a high mark for other groups of workers for the distressed babies.

SISLER RETURNS TO PITCHING HILL IN TODAY'S CLASH

Weakness of Chicago Against Southpaw Hurling Is Reason for Switch.

MOVE ONLY TEMPORARY

Converted Twirler Will Return to First When His Foot Is Healed.

By W. J. O'Connor.

They're trying to southpaw the White Sox out of a pennant! It is considered smart tactics to save the left-handers for the Chicago crew and in two-thirds of their games, so far this season, the Sox have faced the cross-fire of kithogues, which may explain why the team that Connie Mack picks to win the pennant is still in sixth place.

Today, at Sportsman's Park, the Sox will have a peek at George Sisler, who will make his debut as a pitcher. Sisler is supposed to be crippled. He has a stone-bruise on his left heel and, like Achilles, he finds that a vulnerable spot. Sisler has been disabled only once since joining the Browns, and then via the heel.

It was after a consultation with Fielder Jones, last night, that Branch Rickey announced Sisler would pitch today. He will be the fourth southpaw to attack the Sox, two of his three predecessors having made the grade. Wellman whipped the Chicago enemy, 11-1, in the first series yesterday, while Ernie Koob came through with his first full game of the season in the second portion of the bargain bill and won, 2-1.

Sox Pitchers Used Up.

The Chicago pitching staff has been badly used up. Scott, Benz, Danforth, Cicotte and Russell all had a whirl on hurling hill yesterday, leaving only Wolfgang available for today's battle. This is considered almost a soft spot and therefore is picked for Sisler.

The decision to use Sisler is only another instance of the vagaries of the poney-eyed pastime. Last winter Jones announced that Sisler would be entirely a pitcher. That was about the time when Jones so frequently declared:

"Give me a pitcher and a run, and I'll win a lot of ball games." If we take a glance at the Browns' standing today, the conclusion is forced that Sisler is a pitcher. The aforementioned pitcher may too frequently, if they did, they withheld the run, because a "lot of ball games" haven't been won.

However, after the Browns had spent a month in Texas, Jones began to appreciate the fact that Sisler could teach the Sox a thing or two. The Michigan Marvel made such a success of the initial-sacking assignment for the Sox, that he was promoted to the more recent statement: "It will take a lot of dynamite to get George off that mound."

Along comes the dynamite in the way of Chicago's weakness against left-handers, and this afternoon Sisler will reappear as a pitcher.

Koob Is Himself Again.

Ernie Koob gave unmistakable evidence yesterday that he has arrived. This ally of a boy may henceforth be considered the most dependable pitching prop in the Brown stable. He was considered such in the early spring, but an attack of pleurisy rendered him home du jour, and he was yesterday, with considerable elation and things are looking up again at Sportsman's Park.

Koob pitched a masterly game. He showed the stuff, power and grit and he held Chicago to five hits, and he scattered. He won despite shaky arms and he was in there pitching all the time and he has a winning heart.

Koob had been ready from the start, would have been worth at least six games to the Browns, so far. Not only the games he would have won, but the rest he might have given Wellman is an item for consideration. And if we should add six victories to the Browns' total and deduct six defeats we find that Fielder Jones' team would be in fourth place, only 1 1/2 games out of first place. There you are, Eddie!

Credit Not Due Pitchers.

Koob's pitching deserves the major portion of the praise accruing from the Browns' second victory, but a play by Ward Miller should not go unnoticed. In the ninth inning Joe Jackson tripped with one out. Pitcher Detroit with one fly out. It was high and into the cap. Like a bat, it came down and hit the back of Miller's head. He was hit and he was hurt. He was hit and he was hurt. He was hit and he was hurt.

On June 22, Detroit was in sixth place, 7 1/2 games behind the pace-making Indians. Since that date the Tigers have won 15 out of 18 games and are now leading the league. Their only defeat since the great spring offensive was begun in the first week of the season, when they were defeated at the hands of the Yankees, June 13, when Miller tripped off Earl Hamilton with the bases filled and won, 4-2. Hamilton had the Yankees tied, 1-1, in the eighth and then he weakened.

Foster's No-Hit Game.

Another great development on the Eastern front yesterday was George Foster's no-hit game against the Yankees. This is the first time this season that Foster has approached a no-hit game. He pitched five innings, but a Yankee reached first on the seventh inning. He was opposed by Alexander, who was touched for eight hits.

Kennedy Coming to Take Part in Twelve-Mile Run

Stag A. C.'s Feature Event of July 2 Is Expected to Draw 20 Entries.

Although it will be the first marathon run ever held by the organization, the Stag A. C. is making great headway in its plans for the 12-mile run on July 2. "Bill" Kennedy, who has taken part in several M. A. C. marathons, and who while in this city was a member of the Columbian A. C., will be here. Henry Levinson, who is in charge of the event has also invited several other Windy City stars in an effort to have them come here.

It is expected that the coming event will prove another race for supremacy between Irvin Biel of the M. A. C. and Jack Kaying of the C. A. C. These two rivals have met twice this year and on both occasions the winner of the cherry diamond emblem came out in front. Kaying is training hard for the coming race and will try his hardest to beat Biel.

The two victories for Biel came in the M. A. C. cross-country and in the recent 10-mile run of the Tanager C. Kaying finished about 10 seconds behind him in the latter event.

Tom McCarthy, who made such a good showing in the Tanager C. event, will represent the Stag A. C. in the 12-mile run. McCarthy is working out with a new partner at the gym, and he is expected to make a good showing.

Tom Whitaker, coach of the Missouri A. paddlers, will enter four men in the fifth annual five-mile river swim of the Veterans' club finishing in the city. He will be Herman Leuba, present holder of the title, and three other men. The swim is in preparation for the event. It will be a new first round of the campaign for the local aquatic stars.

Women's Golf Meet Opens. CHICAGO, June 22.—The first match round in the women's Western Golf Association open tournament is scheduled to be played here today. Miss Mildred Smith of Evanston, who trails low score in the qualifying round yesterday, is paired with Mrs. Chas. Martin of South Shore, while Miss Louise M. Fergus of Glenview is second in the qualifying round, is paired with Miss Louise M. Fergus of Glenview.

Tigers Win 14 Out of 15 and Tie Indians, Who Have Lost 5 Straight

DETROIT defeated Cleveland, 3-0, yesterday and went into the tie for first place with the Indians. It was the seventh straight victory for the Tigers; the fifth successive defeat for Cleveland.

On June 22, Detroit was in sixth place, 7 1/2 games behind the pace-making Indians. Since that date the Tigers have won 15 out of 18 games and are now leading the league. Their only defeat since the great spring offensive was begun in the first week of the season, when they were defeated at the hands of the Yankees, June 13, when Miller tripped off Earl Hamilton with the bases filled and won, 4-2. WRAY'S COLUMN

Mr. Dillon Is Confident.

JACK DILLON'S conversation about his coming fight with Frank Moran would make a man pawn his gold teeth and put the proceeds down on the Indianapolis chances—if he believed the conversational output referred to.

Jack is pulling the "I'll knock him out quick," and the "bigger they come, the harder they fall" bromides on the evergreen population of long suffering New York. In fact, Mr. Dillon (born Price) is what you might call a sardonic public.

Among other statements attributed to Dillon is one which refers to his match with Jim Flynn on July 2, at Neway, Ok. Jack relates that after the Moran contest, he will immediately go West as fast as the limited train can carry him. Jack doesn't seem to consider that it's possible he may need an ambulance and not a train after the Moran go, which is set for June 29!

Moran Just a Slugger.

OF course Dillon figures to do point Moran. The big, slow Pittsburgher is nearly much overrated as a boxer. He may be "there" in a finish go; but in all his battle reports, he is shown to be a right-hand fighter, slow and with little skill, of the kind that is beaten by a left-hander.

Dillon the Giant Killer has skill and courage, plus a damaging punch. He ought to win from Moran without himself running much risk of a knockout.

As for stopping Moran—the record book shows that Dillon is NOT essentially a "kayo" wallop. If he is, then he has been pulling his punches all his life. Dillon has knocked out only one man—Charley Welton—since he was able to make the middleweight limit, in 1912.

Something Wrong With Pairings. AS a result of the weakness of pairing systems, the St. Louis golfers who qualified at Kansas City for the state championship had bad fortune, this week. With only five to represent the city, four of them were paired together and forced to eliminate two of their number.

This condition results from the "fair" draw, which means taking names at hazard out of the hat. Such accidents hurt not only the winning party but tournament as well, depriving the contest of picked talent from out-of-town, high-class competition.

Hold Your Nose, Bo.

THE "draw-from-the-hat" system is of ancient lineage. Like an egg of equal antiquity, it has a decided odor. One modern method that might replace it with better results is the "number" system, whereby the qualifying players are classified and numbered according to their scores, the best being No. 1, and the next it being enumerated according to the lowness of their qualifying cards. The 23 players are then divided into two sets of 12. The pairing then begins:

It Can't Be Done. MY WHAT A PERCIOUS LOOKING INDIVIDUAL OVER THERE. BOU! BY MERE POWER OF WILL—THE FORCE OF INTELLIGENCE OVER BRUTE STRENGTH—HE SHALL BECOME GENTLE LIKE A LAMB. OUR SIDE THERE SUNNYFACE, ONE SIDE. IT CAN'T BE DONE.

Only Local Polo Teams in Finals for Western Cup

St. Louis Country Club Shamrocks Defeat Wheaton Four of Chicago 16-7.

The Western Circuit Polo Championship cup will be won by a St. Louis team this season, no matter who takes the final round Saturday. Yesterday the Shamrocks of Country Club defeated the Wheaton four rather decisively, 16-7, eliminating the only alien entry surviving the first round. The Wheaton players scored only one goal, six of their points being a handicap allowance.

The Chicago teams, Wheaton and Wheaton, will play a consolation match after the final round. The Wheaton also played Saturday. The title was won last year by the Shamrocks, who also played Saturday. The title was won last year by the Shamrocks, who also played Saturday.

Carl Morris Is "Back." OLD SCOUT OTTO FLOTO, who referred to Carl Morris-Daily about at Tulsa last week, has this to say regarding the Sapulpa giant, who is showing evidences of a return to earth, pugilism.

"Morris fought better than I ever saw him perform. Realizing that Daily is a tremendous hitter and remembering how the big Pennsylvanian has knocked out Bombardier Wells, Tom Morris, Al Kauffman, and Al Falser, Carl took no unnecessary chances.

"After the first time since I have known him, Morris used a straight punch, or a short hook. 'The bout was even up to the finish. Just before the end Morris feinted Daily, who came tumbling in to clinch. Carl shot out his right to the jaw and it was pay-day again.

"Morris is the one man in the world of Willard's size who seems to know how to fight." But Jess will never fight him. Jess is not seeking a battle with anybody who can cause him real trouble. Carl Morris, being game and experienced, as well as big and strong, would surely cause Jess a lot of anxiety.

Don't Need Gotch.

ANNOUNCEMENTS to the effect that the first day's sale of seats in Omaha for the wrestling bout between Joe Stecher and Strangler Lewis over $6000, makes it appear that Frank Gotch will not be missed as a drawing card in the world. Stecher has been so well exploited that he's as big an attraction as the title holder, now entering the forgotten class through long retirement.

That $6000 advance "gate" is said to be a large one than the first day's sale for the Gotch-Hackenschmidt bout, which drew $5600.

If Stecher wins, however, there will be a clamor for Gotch to reappear and defend his laurels or formally turn them over to the "scissors" kid.

Where Gotch Stands.

GETCH, albeit reluctant (in words) to reappear, is carefully working himself up to this match through some very able advertising talent—Messrs.

BRITTON SAID TO HAVE REQUESTED BID FOR SALLEE

New York Rumor States That $10,000 and Two Players Will Get Pitcher.

SAL REFUSES TO TALK

Southpaw, Here Awaiting Developments, Makes No Comment on Reported Deal.

It has leaked out that President Britton of the Cardinals has expressed a willingness to sell the release of Pitcher Sallee to the Giants.

Those who are close to Britton say that the New York club will agree to hand over $10,000 in cash and a couple of players the deal will go through.

When Sallee, after deserting the Cardinals in New York, arrived here he declared that he would not pitch another game for Miller Huggins. He said that he had grown tired of playing with a losing team and also wanted to get away from this city. Sallee stated that he didn't care what club in the National League purchased his release so long as he didn't remain with the Cardinals.

No Chance of Truce.

As the breach between Huggins and Sallee is widening and there seems no chance to patch up their differences, it is assumed the owners of the Cardinals have decided to get rid of their eccentric left-hander.

It is believed here that Sallee really prefers the Giants because he and Pol Perritt of McGraw's team are old friends. But Sallee insists that he never has talked business with McGraw or any other official of the New York club. When Sallee left the Cardinals flat, the New York club's officials at first said that they did not desire his services.

But as the Giants need a first-class pitcher, Sallee's callous attitude is surprising. If President Humpstead makes an offer that will be accepted by the St. Louis club.

Sal Keeps His "Trap" Shut.

Sallee, when called up today, regarding the reported possibility of his transfer, said he had heard nothing of it. Asked if he would raise any objections to the sale of his contract, or to going to New York, he declared that nothing he could say would shed any light on the situation.

What Sallee said was a up the against me, one way or another," he stated in the Post-Dispatch. "So the best thing I can do is to wait until the matter is settled and keep my trap closed."

Cobb Is Still Gaining.

TY Cobb, American League batting champion for the last 10 seasons, is still gaining on Henry Kamm for the race for the league batting supremacy. Cobb cranked out .384 today, while Kamm was at .378 yesterday, while Benny grabbed one out of three. The figures:

Cobb	43	6	18	2	.421

INFANT PRODIGES

I WENT last night to make a call on pretty Mary Green. An air of quiet greeted me. Her home was all serene. I had a most delightful time as minutes sped along, and then an infant prodigy came in and sang a song. I called on Black and wife one night. He brought out the cigars. At entertaining he and she proved they were adepts—stars. I'd settled back in keen content, a languid, happy cuss, when infant Black, aged 4, came in and spoke a piece for s. c. h. reader, dear, I'll bet that you are saying, "He's a crank." I'll bet you'd like to waylay me and seek me with a plank. To tell the truth, I wouldn't mind a smash upon the dome—that is, if you'd agree to leave those prodigies at home.

Striking a Snag

WHEN Representative Walter A. Watson of Virginia was attending the law school at the University of Virginia his chief instructor was John B. Minor, a famous law professor of his day.

At the opening of the term Minor told his class that if any of them struck a snag in their work and came to him he would try to assist them in any way he could.

A few days after that, Watson struck some pages in his textbook that seemed to have their meaning hid away beyond recall in a maze of phraseology. He read the lesson over and over again for about an hour and a half, and then it occurred to him that this must be what the professor referred to when he spoke of striking a snag. Watson went to Minor's private office and told him what was disturbing him.

"How long have you studied over these pages?" asked the professor.

"Oh, all of an hour and a half," replied Watson.

"Let me tell you something," said the professor in a confidential tone, "for the last 40 years I have never failed to devote at least two or three hours a day to that book, just to refresh my memory—and I wrote the book."

What She Enjoyed Most.

SO you took your wife to the baseball game.

"Did she enjoy it?"

"Only part of it. She thought they wasted a great deal of time running around the lot, but she thought the arguments with the umpire were quite interesting."

Cautious Old Lady

WHEN the train came to a stop an antique-looking dame thrust her head out of the window opposite the refreshment room and briefly shouted, "Sonny!"

A bright-looking boy came up to the window.

"Little boy," she said, "have you a mother?"

"Yes, ma'am."

"Do you love her?"

"Yes, ma'am."

"Do you go to school, dear?"

"Yes, ma'am."

"And are you faithful to your studies?"

"Yes, ma'am."

"Do you say your prayers every night?"

"Yes, ma'am."

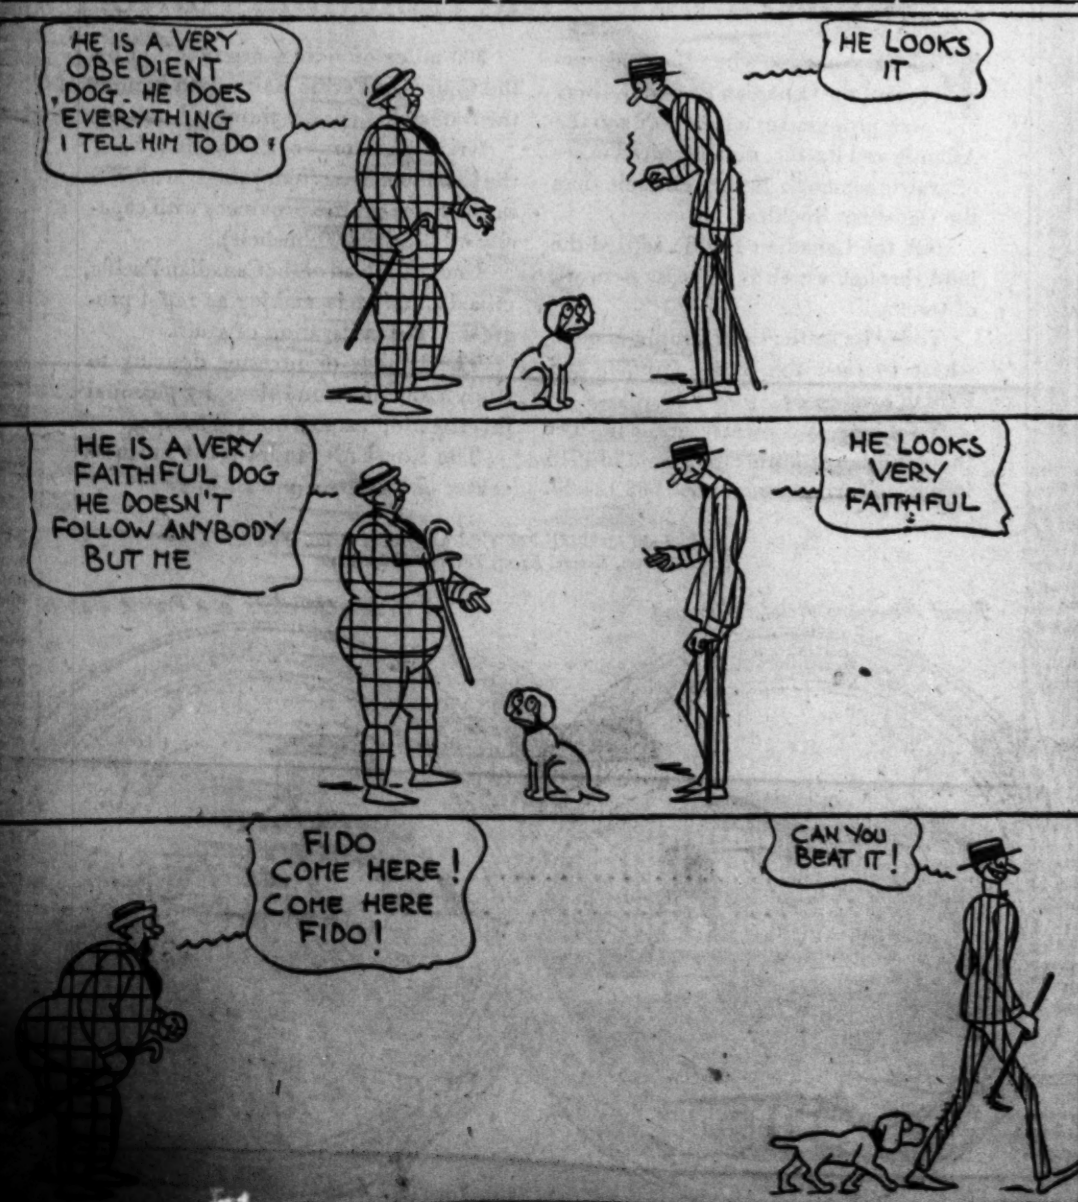

"Can I trust you to do an errand for me?"

"Yes, ma'am."

"I think I can, too," said the kind lady, looking steadily down on the manly face. Here's a penny. Get me an apple. Remember, God sees you!"—London Tit-Bits.

Don't Ever Let Anyone Tell You This as a New One

RATHER logical fellow—that milkman who went and drowned himself.

"How so?"

"Tiring of life, he chose a watery grave."

Changed Later.

MY name, the inmate of the asylum answered proudly, "Is Andrew Carnegie."

"Is that so?" said the visitor. "Why, the last time I was here your name was Theodore Roosevelt."

"But that," said the inmate, "was by my first wife."

Sensational.

AN advertisement of a popular spectacular play has this to say of two of its attractions:

5000 People.

4000 Costumes.

—Ladies' Home Journal.

Sarcastic Housewife.

NORAH, the green cook, poked her head in at the dining room door, says Robert Rudd Whiting in "Four Hundred Good Stories."

"Please, ma'am," she asked, "an' how will I be knowin' when the puddin' is cooked?"

"Stick a knife into it," said her mistress, recalling her cook book instructions. "If the knife comes out clean the pudding is ready to serve."

"Tis, ma'am."

"And, oh, Norah!" The mistress had had an afterthought: "If the knife does come out clean you might stick all the rest of the knives into the pudding."

The Job for Him.

SHE was one of those little women who are always looking for something that will take up their husband's idle time.

"John," she said, "I wish you would mend the front door lock."

"C-can't," replied John, quaking like an aspen leaf. "I've g-got t-h-e-s-shaking ague."

"Oh, well, then, I know the very thing; you can sift the ashes."

Why Is It?

FOR some reason or other the child of today doesn't care for molasses like its mother or father did.

Keen on the Cash.

SHRILLING loudly in the silence of the night, the chemist's bell aroused him from slumber. With reluctance he wrapped himself in a dressing gown and went downstairs, shivering, to be met at the door by a placid-looking man, who merely wanted a bottle of soda water.

The chemist's feelings were strong, but he resolved to do business.

"Twopence extra on the bottle," he murmured, blandly, "which will be allowed on return."

Then he returned to bed.

Two hours later the bell rang again. Once more he went down. Again it was the placid-looking man.

"There's your bottle," he said, calmly. "Gimme my twopence."—London Answers.

IF the weather forecasters could profit financially by their mistakes they would soon have all the money there is.

Had Found It.

OH, by the way, dear," said the merchant, as he was preparing to leave the house in the morning, "if I find I can't be home to dinner I will send a note by messenger."

"Don't trouble," said his wife, sweetly. "I have already found it on the blotting pad."

LOVE may be blind but it's always the first to see its own finish.

His String of Fish.

THE observer was fishing along the banks of a creek near Columbus a short time ago. Two men were also stationed near the same spot. The observer was fortunate enough to get a little string, but the two patient fishermen across the way had not got a nibble. Along in the afternoon an acquaintance of one of the men happened along the bank. Seeing his friend, he exclaimed:

"George, how many have you got?"

George looked up rather vacantly and responded:

"When I get this one I'm after and four more I'll have five."—Columbus Dispatch.

On Trial.

THE sewing machine agent rang the bell. A particularly noisy and vicious-looking bulldog assisted in opening the door. The dog stood his ground. The agent retreated slightly.

"Will that dog bite?" he asked.

"We don't quite know yet," the lady said. "We have only just got him. But we are trying him with strangers. Won't you come in?"

Dressing the Part.

FIRST office boy: Want to get off this afternoon, do you? I'll fix it up for you! Turn around (kicks him twice). Now go in and tell the boss your grandmother's sick with tears in her eyes.

Thirst for Excitement.

OLD Captain Bowline usually spends his time pottering about in a little sailing boat. Recently he was chatting with a friend on the subject of his hobby.

"I think I'll get a motor boat this summer," he said.

"Whatever for?" asked his friend. "I thought you were so keen on sailing."

"Well, I am, but motor boats are so much more exciting," replied the hardy old chap. "In a sailing boat you can only drown, while on the other you can be drowned, burned to a cinder by a petrol explosion or even starved to death if your engine breaks down 10 miles from land."

Jimmy's Compliment.

MA said Jimmy, "the teacher gave me a fine compliment today."

"Oh, did she?" said the delighted mother. "What did she say to you?"

"Well, she didn't exactly say anything to me, but she told George that he was the worst boy in school, and that she liked even me better than him."

DEFINITION OF AN OPTIMIST.

Almost to the Boards.

MR. BLANK is very wealthy and very close. An acquaintance of his met Blank's son the other day and said:

"Your father seems to have lost a good deal of money lately. The last time I saw him he was complaining and saying he must economize."

"Economize, eh? Did father say where he was going to begin?"

"Yes, on his table," he said. "Then I guess he must be going to take away the tablecloth," was the filial declaration.

Horrible Accident.

A POPULAR sportsman, being vastly concited about his fine figure, wore corsets to show it off. One day he was thrown from his horse and lay prone on the road. A farm laborer ran to render him assistance. The first aid man began to feel the fallen one all over to see if any bones happened to be broken and suddenly yelled out to another laborer:

"Run, Jack, for heaven's sake, for a doctor. Here's a man's ribs runnin' north and south, instead of east and west."—Tit-Bits.

HITS FROM SHARP WITS

If the average man who is learning to play golf would confine his efforts to his back yard he could have a prize-winning garden by stirring up the same amount of soil.

There are not half as many men sawing wood and saying nothing as there are saying too much and saying no wood.—Nashville Banner.

When we see a woman bundled up in furs on a cold, raw day, walking hand-in-hand with a little tot of 3 or 4 whose socks reach only about an inch above his shoe tops, we don't know which to pity the more—the foolishness of the woman or the plight of the child.
